

PRINCE VON BUELOW REPORTED COMING TO U. S. ON SPECIAL MISSION FOR KAISER

London, May 24.—The Exchange Telegraph company says it learns from diplomatic circles that Prince Von Buelow, former German chancellor, is proceeding to Washington, charged by Emperor William with a special mission. The Exchange Telegraph company also says it understands Prince Von Buelow will become ambassador to the United States. This information is said to have been obtained from diplomatic circles in London.

(Prince Von Buelow, one of the foremost statesmen of Europe, has been referred to frequently in the last few months as the man who might be selected by Emperor William to conduct preliminary peace negotiations, should they be undertaken. He had been mentioned in this connection not only on account of the experience and recognized ability, but because he had occupied rather a detached position so far as actual conduct of the war is concerned.) GERMANS CAPTURE VILLAGE OF CUMIERES

MORE THAN 300 TAKEN PRISONERS

Berlin, May 24.—(Via London)—The capture by Thuringian troops of the village of Cumieres, east of Dead Man Hill, on the Verdun front was announced by the war office this afternoon. The village was taken by storm. So far more than 300 prisoners, including 8 officers have been taken by the Germans in this operation.

Paris, May 24.—A powerful offensive was undertaken by the Germans last night to the east of Dead Man Hill on the Verdun front. The attempt in general was unsuccessful, the war office report of this afternoon says, but after a fierce hand to hand struggle the attacking forces made their way into a portion of the village of Cumieres.

At this point the French are faced by more than three divisions. German attacks on Fort Douaumont, the corner stone of the Verdun defenses, are said virtually to have failed. Notwithstanding the determination of their attacks and what is characterized as a most reckless expenditure of life, the Germans succeeded only in taking a small part of a trench east of the fort.

PEACE ON THE OTHER SIDE OF THE DIVINA

London, May 24.—An order of the day said to have been issued recently by Field Marshal Von Hindenburg to his men on the Russian front, is quoted as follows in a Central News despatch from Basel Switzerland:

"For some time a rumor has been spreading among the troops that peace negotiations are about beginning and this fact, coupled with the instinct of self preservation, which is constantly growing, is having a bad effect on the morale of the men. In the name of the Emperor, I declare that there cannot be any question of peace until we have crossed the Rhine. Soldiers, if you wish peace, go and seek it on the other side of the Rhine."

SERBIAN ARMY WANTS TO RE-ENTER WAR

Athens, May 24.—Prince Alexander, of Serbia, regent of King Peter's landless kingdom, in an interview today with a representative of the Associated Press, said that he had assurances from all the allies that no settlement of the war would be accepted which did not provide for the restoration of Serbia.

"The Serbian army is completely restored," continued the Prince to a representative of the Associated Press, "and ask nothing better than to come to grips with the invaders of their native land. Strong in the friendship of our great allies we place our trust in God and are confident that we shall enter our fatherland in triumph and free our brothers from the yoke of the oppressor."

Compensation Granted An Unborn Child

Philadelphia, Pa., May 24.—Compensation for a child yet unborn, to become effective at birth, and continue until the child is sixteen years old, is awarded by Referee W. W. Champion, of Williamsport, in a decision made public by the workmen's compensation board here today. The referee took the position that the child is legally in being and entitled to consideration the same as a born child.

INVITE OHIO WOMAN; NOT SO HER RIVAL

New York, May 24.—One of the imposing social events accompanying the biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, is a luncheon given here today by Mrs. John Hays Hammond. Some 200 guests at this affair include wives of cabinet ministers and foreign ambassadors and other distinguished women. The fact that the name of Mrs. Josiah Evans Cowles, California's candidate for the presidency of the federation, does not appear on the list of guests, while Mrs. Samuel B. Sneath, of Tiffin, Ohio, the opposition candidate, was invited, caused much comment in women's club circles. The situation was explained by Mrs. William Grant Brown, chairman of the local biennial board, who said that no slight to Mrs. Cowles was intended or given.

TWO MILLION PLANNED FOR POLISH RELIEF

Washington, D. C., May 24.—A resolution by Senator Hitchcock, of Nebraska, requesting the secretary of state to inform the senate as to the attitude of the British government concerning shipment of supplies to the people of Poland, was recommended for passage today by the foreign relations committee.

The resolution asks whether Great Britain would allow supplies to be sent from the United States to Poland through neutral ports. Senator Hitchcock plans to ask a Polish relief appropriation of $2,000,000 if the way can be cleared for undertaking the work.

BRANDEIS NOMINATION IS GIVEN FAVORABLE VOTE BY COMMITTEE

Washington, May 24.—The senate judiciary committee voted 10 to 8 today to report favorably to the senate the nomination of Louis D. Brandeis to be associate justice of the supreme court. It was a strict party vote.

No plan as to when the nomination will be taken up in the senate has yet been formulated. The election of the committee remained in doubt up to the time the vote was taken. Senator Shields, Democrat, of Tennessee, arrived in the capital city today just in time to cast the deciding vote.

Senator Cummins, of Iowa, was the only member of the committee not present. His vote, however, was recorded against confirmation. Senators voting for confirmation were Culberson, Overman, Chilton, O'Gorman, Fletcher, Reed, Ashurst, Shields, Walsh and Smith of Georgia.

Senators voting against confirmation were Clark of Wyoming; Nelson, Dillingham, Sutherland, Brandegee, Borah, Cummins and Works.

The vote is one of the final steps in a contest which started as soon as the nomination was sent to the senate by President Wilson on January 28. Weeks were spent by a sub-committee taking testimony regarding charges against the nominee, formulated by a committee of citizens of Boston. The sub-committee recommended confirmation by a strict party vote of three to two.

The charge against Mr. Brandeis was "unethical conduct in relation to several clients and working under cover."

President A. Laurence Lowell, of Harvard, headed the committee of citizens organized to fight confirmation. William H. Taft, Simon E. Baldwin, Francis Rawley, Jos. H. Choate, Elihu Root, Moorfield Storey and Peter W. Medford, each a former president of the American Bar Association also opposed confirmation.

SENATE AGAIN REJECTS RUBLEE

Washington, D. C., May 24.—George Rublee was still in office today as a member of the Federal Trade Commission, despite the senate's refusal yesterday to reconsider its former rejection of his nomination. He probably will continue to serve as a recess appointee of President Wilson, although he can not draw any pay either for his fifteen months' services or for the future. Rejection was passed on senatorial courtesy, Mr. Rublee having been personally objectionable to Senator Gallinger, Republican leader. The vote was a tie, 38 to 38, on a motion to reconsider.

Bishop Anderson Will Stay In Cincinnati

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., May 24.—A radical change in the administrative staff of the board of home missions and church extension is provided in a plan for reorganization submitted to the general conference today. The principal change is a reduction from three to one in the number of secretaries who are the executive heads of all the Methodist missionary work in this country. The proposal was offered with the idea of centering responsibilities in one person. Lively opposition has been expressed by some of the delegates who favor the present system.

The conference voted 468 to 325 to continue the publication of all magazines. It has been proposed to consolidate three of the church papers as an economy.

Publishing agents of the Methodist Book Concern were elected as follows: Edwin R. Graham, Chicago, and John H. Rice and Henry C. Jennings, of Cincinnati.

Gifts of $5,100 were made by members for the Boys' Industrial School, Venice, Italy. Of this Cleveland, contributed $3,200 by purchasing at auction a table manufactured by the boys of this school for the use of the conference.

Assignments of bishops to Episcopal residences for the ensuing four years included the following: Wm. F. Anderson, Cincinnati; Theodore H. Henderson, Detroit; Herbert Welch, Seoul, Korea.

VILLA BANDS REORGANIZED

Columbus, N. M., May 24.—Reorganization of at least two of Villa's scattered bands were reported here officially today. These bands, recruited by agitators among the villages of the foot hills of Southwestern Chihuahua are said to be making their way slowly northward through the mountains. Peons who join them are being promised loot. General J. J. Pershing, expeditionary commander is said to be keeping closely in touch with the movements of the brigands, although his cavalry men are not going south from the advanced base.

Mr. M. K. Davis, of 2142 Ninth street, who is spending the summer with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dodge, of near Mt. Oreb, Brown county, suffered a slight paralytic stroke Friday night. His left side and throat were affected. He is 65 years old, which will be against him in regaining his health.

ARE SEEKING TO RECOVER LANDS

Washington, D. C., May 24.—A bill to recover the title to 3,200,000 acres of land worth more than $20,000,000, granted to the Oregon and California railroad by the Federal government fifty years ago, was brought up in the house today. The measure would authorize suit against the railroad for recovery of funds received for sale of 800,000 acres at more than $2.50 an acre, contrary to provisions of the original grant. Speedy action was urged on the ground that an injunction against disposition of the lands issued last December 9, by the supreme court of the United States, expires June 9. The measure is of special interest to 16,000 persons to whom agents sold the land fraudulently and who were deprived of their rights by the supreme court decision.

Mrs. Waite Testifies Against Husband Who Poisoned Her Parents

New York, May 24.—The sender of the mysterious "K. Adams" telegram, which has figured in the case of Dr. Arthur Warren Waite, accused of the murder of his father in law, John E. Peck, millionaire, the Grand Rapids mill manufacturer, was identified as Elizabeth B. Hardwick, of Somerville, N. J., at Waite's trial today. This was the telegram sent from New York to Grand Rapids, urging Percy Peck to have an autopsy performed on his father's body.

Mrs. Clara Louise Peck Waite faced her husband, Dr. Arthur Warren Waite, in the court for the first time today when she took the stand as a witness against him. Mrs. Waite, who was dressed in mourning, came in to the court room so quietly that few observed her as she took a seat behind the jury box as her brother Percy Peck, was testifying.

Dr. Waite who had been sitting with bowed head all the forenoon, looked at his wife, but she appeared not to see him.

Mrs. Waite testified concerning her father's visit from Grand Rapids to New York and said that Waite suggested that Dr. Albertus A. Moore be called to see her father.

WHITE HOUSE PHYSICIAN TO BE MARRIED THIS EVENING

New York, May 24.—The president and Mrs. Wilson arrived here today shortly after one o'clock to attend the wedding this evening of Dr. Cary T. Grayson, the president's naval aide and physician, and Miss Alice Gertrude Gordon, of Washington and New York.

Miss Gordon is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James G. Gordon, of Washington, D. C., and a niece of Mrs. Henry Wood Flournoy, of New York. The ceremony is to be performed at four o'clock in the chapel of St. George's church by the Rev. William J. Cox, of Philadelphia. The bride will be given away by her cousin, Patrick W. Flournoy, of Charleston, West Virginia.

YOUTH WIELDED DEADLY HATCHET. IT IS ALLEGED

Charleston, W. Va., May 24.—Howard Moore, aged 19, has been arrested in connection with the murder of John Redden, a merchant at Warden, Raleigh county. The authorities allege he confessed killing Redden with a hatchet.

WARNING TO PRESBYTERIES IS GIVEN

Atlantic City, N. J., May 24.—The general assembly of the Presbyterian church in the United States of America today adopted without debate a report from the committee on bills and overtures warning the New York and all other Presbyteries that the tenets of the church must be accepted by candidates for the ministry before they shall be ordained. This action it is believed, ends further discussion in the present assembly of the alleged heresy question in which the New York Presbytery and Union Theological Seminary are involved.

The committee had before it more than two dozen overtures from Presbyteries from many parts of the country dealing with the heresy controversy. The one which attracted the most attention and to which serious consideration was given by the committee was that from the Cincinnati Presbytery, which proposed the New York Presbytery be expelled because it licensed three young men who are alleged to hold views at variance with the doctrines of the church. The absence of debate on the report came as a great surprise.

WILL PROBE THE MOVIES

Columbus, O., May 24.—In a conference today Governor Frank B. Willis and Auditor of State A. V. Donahay discussed ways of dovetailing the work of inspectors of various departments of the State Industrial Commission so as to provide a way of detecting violations of the state moving picture laws.

HATES CHICKENS AND COWS TOO

Woman's Story Will Hold Interest for Thousands of People Everywhere.

"I hate the cows and chickens," said Mrs. Ettie Edwards, of 310 Mill street, Lockland, O., in paraphrase of a popular song of the cabarets.

"I have lived on eggs and milk for so long that I just can't look at a hen or a cow with friendly eyes," she explained laughingly.

"When one's diet is restricted to the products of our friends of the barnyard for weeks and then months, it is like suddenly stepping into a little paradise of content to find all of the good things of former days back on your own bill of fare."

Mrs. Edwards' story will hold interest for thousands of men and women who would welcome, as she did, freedom from a diet.

"I have long been a sufferer from stomach trouble," she explained. "I paid in pain for every meal I ate. There was the daily headache that appeared soon after breakfast, and stayed for lunch and supper. My sleep, after the hours of suffering, was broken and gave me no real rest. I had no energy, was tired all the time, and life was just long days of discontent."

"In the hope of improving I began the diet of boiled milk and boiled eggs. And I was faithful. For weeks I kept this diet and I did improve some under it, but I was not being cured, I realized."

"Now my stomach is a great deal better. I can eat almost anything without ill effects. I am too thankful to depart from plainly cooked food yet, however. But my appetite is good, my sleep is sound and refreshing, and my housework is no longer an irritating, difficult task."

"The reason? I have taken Tanlar, the Master Medicine. So why should I hesitate to recommend it to anyone or everyone who suffers as I did?"

Throughout the country there are more than 1,000,000 people who will say, as does Mrs. Edwards, that there is no medicine that acts so favorably on ailments of the stomach, liver and kidneys or catarrhal affections, or is so good a tonic, appetizer and invigorant as Tanlar, which is now being introduced in Fisher and Streich Pharmacy at Portsmouth, Ohio.

LOAN ADVANTAGES

4. The weekly or monthly plan is better for the wage earner than the straight loan because as he pays each week the interest is not only being paid but also the principal. Many have tried the straight loan and changed to our DEFINITE CONTRACT PLAN. Weekly payments are not so hard on the wage earner, as to pay a lump sum and he can more readily meet them. Weekly payments and our semi-annual interest reducing plan makes the best loan for wage earners.

We welcome inquiries.

Girls Arrested On Parents Complaint

Florence Tolliver and Bertha Murta, two young girls of Front street, were arrested Wednesday morning by Officer Platt and lodged in the county jail at the request of the juvenile court authorities. The girls, who are under suspended sentences to the Delaware School for Girls, left their homes Tuesday afternoon and failed to return. Their parents complained to the juvenile court authorities and they were arrested.

The Tolliver girl had a $5 bill when she left home. Both girls were placed under suspended sentence on a similar charge recently. They will be given a hearing Saturday afternoon, when Judge Thomas C. Bouty returns from his vacation.

The two girls had spent the night at the Biggs House, registering under assumed names. When Officer Platt discovered them on the streets Wednesday morning they started to run from him. He overtook them but they balked on going with him, instead sitting down on a sidewalk. He hailed a passing grocery wagon into which he lifted them bodily and hauled them to the juvenile court. The Tolliver girl is only 13 years old. Her mother told the police that she has all along refused to go to school and she wanted her sent to the Girls' Industrial Home. The other girl is a step daughter of Dave Lewis, a well known West End citizen.

Preparedness!
To combat disease, to meet any emergency—that's the meaning of the word to the individual. Why wait? Dorothy Green in "A Parisian Romance" At the Columbia Tonight

This is one of the strongest of the many strong picture productions from the celebrated William Fox studios, reproducing the greatest stage success of the late Richard Mansfield.

A cast of exceptional merit is seen in the William Fox production of the Richard Mansfield version of "A Parisian Romance," starring H. Cooper Cliffe and Dorothy Green. Mr. Cliffe is the well known English actor and

Charlie Chaplin's Burlesque On "Carmen" At The Lyric Tomorrow

Charlie Chaplin's burlesque on "Carmen," Essanay's four act feature, will be shown at the Lyric tomorrow.

It is the only genuine Chaplin feature to be had and is a scream of laughter from start to finish.

Every one in the country knows of this Chaplin comedy, and has been waiting to see it.

Charlie Chaplin is seen in an entirely new make-up. Gone are his old tramp clothes, eke his dress suit and overalls. He appears in this piece in the uniform of a soldier, although a real officer with such a disorderly ensue time would be asked for his resignation. But Chaplin has not given up his shoes. These are the same toboggans with the special education and the funny turned-up quirk at the toes. But it is the same Chaplin, the same carriage and the same walk, despite the make-up. It is impossible to miss this in any disguise.

This is a play that will appeal to men, women and children alike. There are parts that are slapstick, parts that are subtle humor, and parts bordering on pathos, which is one essential of the highest form of comedy. It is so packed full of mirth that it cannot but appeal to all.

Robert Warwick and Frances Nelson in "Human Driftwood" at Lyric Tonight.

Bought with gold, her heart given to another, what was the poor girl to do? The lover was true, and proved his worthiness of her by sacrificing his own blood and taking his life in his hands that she may be freed from the bonds of soul slavery to a ruffian and degenerate. That is briefly the story of the Robert Warwick World Film feature which will be shown at the Lyric tonight. "Human Driftwood" is in five parts and abounds with sensational action. Critics everywhere have placed it among the best pictures of the year. Frances Nelson has the feminine lead.

At The Exhibit
"A Flickering Light" is a two-part Western drama, a Mustang production, with the usual big thrills and excitement galore.

these two reels. "Scorched Wings" is a three part Imp drama, featuring Betty Gray, as an impressionable girl just learning her power over the masculine sex. She comes near to taking the fatal step before common sense awakens her to the meaning of true love. "He Almost Elope," is a rip-roaring Nestor comedy.

Temple Theatre
"The Pursuit of Pleasure" is the title of the first chapter of this great Pathe serial which will be shown at the Temple theatre every Wednesday. Three reels to each episode. See them all by starting today. A serial that will carry your uppermost attention through the several episodes. "All Dolled Up" is a side-splitting comedy followed by "Great While It Lasted," a Phonofilm.

Luke enjoys the distinction of being a millionaire for all too short a time. He is progressing with considerable spirit, when the cruel news arrives that a mistake has been made and that the deceased uncle whose fortune he is enjoying is somebody else's.

At The Forrest
"The Extra Man and the Milk Fed Lion" is a three part Mustang drama taken from one of the famous Charles E. Van Loan stories. The leading character is Art Acord, playing as Buck Parvin. The scenes are extremely well handled by a pleasing cast.

The boxing contest with the Mangrove and Tommy's blunder in the lion cage are real thrillers. "Hilda's Hasty Helper" is a farce comedy offering, and shows the loveliest clerk getting in trouble all around, and eventually winning out over the heads of all through joining forces with a traveling feminine athlete.

Marimba Records A Musical Novelty

THE instant, widespread success of the first Columbia marimba records proved the popularity of this novel form of musical expression. The ringing clearness of the higher notes, the deep, booming bass of the lower, the tremendous resonance of this instrument gives a new and interesting quality to even familiar music. These records are splendid reproductions of the power of marimba tone:

- A-1067, 10-inch, 75c—MAUNA KEA. (Arranged by Cuba.) Henry N. Clark and Octette. KAALA. (Kauai.) Robert Kaawa and Octette.
- A-1066, 10-inch, 75c—THE MODEST SUSANA. (Hilbert.) Royal Marimba Band. THE FLAG OF GUATEMALA. (V. Hurtado.) Royal Marimba Band.
- A-1065, 10-inch, 75c—NATIVE OF VIENNA WALTZ. (Strauss.) Hurtado Brothers Marimba Octette. (Royal Marimba Band.) HERRERIN TWO STEP. (Pierce.) Hurtado Brothers Marimba Octette. (Royal Marimba Band.)

Columbia Records are consistently first with the musical novelties and hits of the day. You could hear the music of the marimba shortly after Hurtado Brothers introduced it at the Frisco Fair. And you can hear today at Columbia dealers the hits that are sung everywhere today. "All the hits while they are hits" is the Columbia policy.

New Columbia Records are out the 20th of every month. Columbia Records in all Foreign Languages. This advertisement was dictated to the Dictaphone.

Von Walden Is Found Guilty; Counsel Asks For New Trial

R. Von Walden, of Cincinnati, was found guilty of a charge of practicing medicine without a license Tuesday in the court of common pleas. After the verdict was read by County Clerk John W. Hall, Judge John C. Milner, counsel for the defense, made a motion for a new trial and Judge Thomas set the hearing for Wednesday, May 31, at one o'clock. The jury was out fifteen minutes. The minimum penalty is a fine of $50 and a 30 day jail sentence or both and the maximum is a fine of $1000 and one year in jail or both. Last year the Charles Pen-stomacher case came to the attention of the county authorities and an indictment was returned against Von Walden. In March, this year, Dr. G. F. Schwenkmyer, who accompanied R. Von Walden to Portsmouth to see Charles Penstomacher, was tried before the state medical board on a charge of unprofessional conduct and his license was revoked. Then both Von Walden and Dr. Schwenkmyer were jointly indicted. The charge against the physician is aiding and abetting Von Walden.

This case has attracted the attention of the medical profession throughout the state. Several physicians were present during the proceedings.

R. Von Walden was not in the court room when the verdict was read. His presence was waived by his counsel.

Judge A. Z. Blair assisted Prosecuting Attorney Joseph T. Micklethwait in the prosecution.

Boy Scout News

Big Debate of the Season
Possibly the biggest debate of the season with Boy Scouts will be held tomorrow evening (Thursday) at the First Presbyterian church when Troops 1 and 8 will lock horns in the second debate of their series. It will be "Cyclone" Snively versus Boyd, and that means a real scrap. Snively will represent Troop 1 with the affirmative argument of the subject, "Resolved, That the World is Growing Better." Boyd will represent Troop 8 and argue from the negative standpoint. The debate will begin promptly at seven o'clock. The public is cordially invited.

Patrol Leaders Hold Meeting
Patrol Leaders of Troop 8 met in monthly session last evening at the home of Harold Dunn, 1328 Officers street. Frank C. Davis, Senior Patrol Leader, presided. William Seaggs, new patrol leader, was sworn in. The chief business of the evening was the adoption of the "Efficiency System" for the troop, which if carried out properly will make this troop one of the best in the state. Every Scout will be rated, and the system will prove a stimulus to have every member become better and more efficient scouts. The method was explained fully by Patrol Leader Dunn. Corwin Knowles gave a most excellent paper on "Physical Preparedness." Patrol Leader Hamilton gave a 10 minute talk on the subject, "The Scout Meeting." His talk was followed with a lively discussion. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. Dunn, mother of the host. The following members were present: Hamilton, Davis, Dunn, Eisenau, Seaggs, Knowles, and Bierley. The next meeting will be held on June 6 at the home of Corwin Knowles.

Mrs. Grice Injured

Mrs. Malinda B. Grice, aged 70 years, widow of the late Charles C. Grice, was severely hurt in a fall at the post office Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Grice had just been talking to her son, Harry Grice, of the money order department, and started to descend the south side steps. The sun blinded her and becoming dizzy she pitched headlong from the top step to the sidewalk, receiving a bad scalp wound and bruises on the shoulder. She was bleeding profusely from the gash on the head when picked up and assisted into the post office where her son rendered first aid. She was later removed to his home at No. 1636 Eighth street in a taxi for the remainder of the day in order not to unduly alarm her daughter, Miss Minnie Grice, who has been very ill at the family home No. 721 Ninth street for the past few years.

A Mistake in the Policy of the Bethlehem Steel Company

To the People:

The Senate of the United States has passed a bill to spend $11,000,000 of the People's money to build a government armor plant. The measure is now before the House of Representatives.

It is said that manufacturers of armor have "gouged" the country in the past, and that a government plant is necessary to secure armor more cheaply.

The mistake of the Bethlehem Steel Company has been that it has kept quiet.

We have allowed irresponsible assertions to be made for so long without denial, that many people now believe them to be proven facts.

We shall make the mistake of silence no longer.

Henceforth we shall pursue a policy of publicity. Misinformation will not be permitted to go uncorrected.

It is and has been the policy of our Company to deal with the American Government fairly and squarely.

We shall henceforth place the details of our relations with the Government before the American People.

The United States has for twenty years obtained the highest grade of armor and has paid a lower price for it than has any other great naval power.

Figures officially compiled for the Senate Committee on Naval Affairs from the Naval Year Book show that under conditions prevailing just before the European war, the chief naval powers of the world were paying these prices for armor:

England, $303 per ton; France, $460; Germany, $490; Japan, $490; UNITED STATES, $125.

A government plant cannot make armor any cheaper than we can do it; and—

We are prepared to manufacture armor at any price which the Government itself shall name as fair. THAT BEING SO, SHOULD $11,000,000 OF THE PEOPLE'S MONEY BE WASTED TO BUILD A GOVERNMENT PLANT?

Women Have Rumpus; One Is Fined, Other Police News

The West End hotel rumpus of a few days ago was given another airing in police court Wednesday morning when Mrs. Bessie Stambaugh, who had caused the arrest of the proprietor, J. M. Adkins, found herself facing a counter charge of assault preferred by Mrs. Adkins. The woman was found guilty and fined $10 and costs. "I've got more money than I have good clothes," said she as she displayed several five dollar bills. Clerk Harry Johnson was having some difficulty making the change fast enough to suit her and she became so noisy and demonstrative that she was twice called to account.

Joe Henry, a taxi driver, charged with operating his car after night without any lights, was dismissed with the warning that his next offence would mean a fine of $25.

ION-O-LEX

Stops Inflammation in Burns and Wounds

Ion-o-lex is probably the most important discovery that has been made in the field of medicine in fifty years.

It is not a drug—it contains no narcotics or poisons.

It is perfectly harmless and does not interfere with any other treatment.

Takes the pain out of a scald or burn almost instantly.

Stops inflammation anywhere in the body.

In Neuritis, Acute Rheumatism, Croup, Tonsillitis, Bronchitis, Appendicitis, Erysipelas—in any inflammatory disease, Ion-o-lex acts promptly and effectively.

Two forms—Liquid for internal use and Ion-o-lex Unguent for external use.

With Dorothy Green and Cooper Cliffe

A BEAUTIFUL STORY OF BEAUTY AND THE BEAST

STATISTICS ON THE COST OF RUNNING WATERWORKS

George P. Shute, chief hydraulic engineer at the new city water works, has made public some interesting figures on the cost of operating the new plant for the year of 1915.

The interest charges were $29,829.50 and the cost of operation $37,098.52, making a total of $66,928.32 for the year. The total receipts were $71,438.14, leaving a profit of $4,479.82 to be placed to the credit of the sinking fund and will be applied to liquidate the bonded indebtedness.

Mr. Shute says the state board of accounting computed the value of the water used in a year by the city at $10,499. With the actual profit the engineer figures the total profit at $14,978.82. Considering the water used by the city as profit and figuring the bonded indebtedness at $715,500, Mr. Shute says that a payment of two percent can be made on the outstanding indebtedness.

The average daily amount of water furnished by the plant was 3,074,000 gallons. The average cost per million gallons for production is $3.06, and is divided as follows: Administration, $3.18; pumping, $17.90; filtration, $5.47; and distribution, $5.52.

Dr. Edwards' STRENGTH TONIC

This Tonic which Dr. Edwards recommends is designed to restore strength to the weak, strength to the muscles, strength to the mind and strength to the nerves.

It is given to restore to the blood that rich red color which every weak and run-down person must have before he can get well and strong.

That Natural Ruddy Color

Of good health is absent in cases of thin, weak and run-down patients. Their cheeks, lips and eyelids lack that normal blood tint; and the feeling of well being is not with them. Dr. Edwards' Strength Tonic restores the color to the blood, drives away that sickly greenish pallor of the complexion and supplies fuel for the vital fire in weak and thin people.

Nervous Patients

Dr. Edwards says patients are nervous because they do not have enough rich, red blood to feed the nerves. So he made this Tonic to give the blood just what it needs for that purpose.

Sugar Coated Tablets

Dr. Edwards has his Tonic put in a sugar coated tablet so it will be pleasant to take and will not injure the teeth. Pale, thin, weak and run-down people contract diseases more frequently than well ones. They are liable to have Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Bright's Disease, Nervous Dyspepsia, Insanity, Fevers and Consumption.

Don't Have These

Why not put yourself in shape not to have these diseases by letting Dr. Edwards' Strength Tonic help you out of your nervous and run-down condition? It will build you up right from the start by increasing your appetite, toning up the nervous system, enriching the blood and increasing your vital force. For sale by your druggist.

TERMINALS

John Wesley Carter has returned to his home near Roanoke, Va., after a short visit with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Carter, of Poplar street.

Tobe Hamilton of Walnut street, who recently suffered a broken arm, is getting along nicely.

Il. T. Reinecker, assistant superintendent of the Seinto Division, spent Wednesday in Columbus on business.

Carna Duffey, employed in the restaurant department of the Y. M. C. A., will leave May 27 on a ten day's vacation.

Fred Turner, formerly of this place, now a farmer of near Vails Station, was in the city on business Wednesday and called on old friends here.

Every member of the Tabernacle church is urged to attend the mid-week prayer services and business meeting to be held Thursday evening at the Tabernacle. District Superintendent of the M. E. church, Rev. L. L. Magee of the city, will be present. An official board will be elected and every member should be present to have a vote on who are to be officers of the church.

A large number attended the cottage prayer meeting services held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Perry Gillum, 3046 Walnut street.

OBITUARY

Beverly Victor Storer

Beverly Victor Storer, aged 61 years, an N. & W. machinist helper, and one of New Boston's best known citizens, died at his home in that village Wednesday morning at 2:30 o'clock.

Mr. Storer never fully recovered from the effects of serious injuries sustained October 11, 1915, when while on his way to work at the Terminals he was struck by a B. & O. local freight train. After spending a couple of months in Hempstead hospital he was removed back home and for a time seemed on a fair way to complete recovery but developed a cancerous growth on his neck.

Mr. Storer was born in Pond Run, Seinto county, the son of David Storer, a pioneer citizen of Pond Run, who died eight years ago. Mr. Storer for a number of years lived in Portsmouth and was employed as a motorman on the street railway. He had lived in New Boston for the past twelve years during which time he has been in the service of the N. & W.

Mr. Storer was married 38 years ago to Maria Williams, who survives him with one son, Van E. Storer, of Third and Sinton streets, one daughter Mrs. Albina T. Young, wife of Ed Young, of Seinto county, was a stepdaughter. Mr. Storer also leaves one brother, Eliza Storer, of Milford, Clermont county, Ohio, and two sisters, Mrs. Almada George, wife of Fire Chief William George of Ironton, and Mrs. Geneva Kennedy of Eleventh street, widow of the late Oliver O. Kennedy. In his earlier days he was an attendant of the Methodist Episcopal church at Pond Run. The funeral will take place some time Friday with interment in the Storer cemetery at Pond Run.

The body will be at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Young, 1405 Kinney Lane, until Friday.

Mrs. Freda Simpson

Mrs. Mary E. Oldfield of 1824 Grant street has returned from McArthur, where she was called by the death of her sister, Mrs. Freda Holland Simpson, of Columbus, O. Mrs. Simpson died suddenly while on a visit to relatives in McArthur. The deceased was twenty-five years of age and a talented musician. Besides her husband she leaves a three year old son, Donald Lyle Simpson. Her many friends here will be sorry to learn of her untimely death. She visited here several times.

Mother Is Dead

C. Howard Miller, of Sixth street, was called to Dayton, Ohio, on account of his mother's death. Mr. Miller is local salesman for the Lutz and Schramm Co., and is very well known among the local grocers.

Funeral Wednesday

The body of the late William Nagel, who died recently in California, arrived here Tuesday night and was accompanied by Mrs. Nagel and son Arthur. The funeral services were conducted this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the home of Mrs. Gus Keller, a sister of the deceased, who resides at 916 Waller street. The last rites of Mr. Nagel, who for many years was an honored resident of Portsmouth, were conducted by Rev. George P. Horst, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church.

church. Members of Massie Lodge Knights of Pythias, will attend the services in a body.

Mrs. Goldie Miller Brown

Mrs. Goldie Miller Brown was born August 7, 1890, died May 19, 1916, aged 25 years, 9 months and 12 days. She was united in marriage to Mr. Geo. Brown Dec. 4, 1810. To this union was born three children, Melva E. aged 4, Ollie M., aged 3 and Ocie M. aged 19 months. Besides these three children she leaves to mourn their loss a loving husband, a father and mother, one sister and host of near relatives and friends. Mrs. Brown has been sick for some time and has calmly borne her afflictions and bravely baffled the Grim Reaper and being subdued she succumbed to the inevitable which alike awaits us all. Oh blessed rest. Oh! Sweetest sleep. My sinking heart rejoices to see And rest beneath the Mother sod And wait for victory.

When that immortal strain shall wake This mortal in the ground, Then she shall stand at the golden gate Where mercy can be found.

Mrs. Brown was converted at Otway in February 14, 1915, was baptized by Revs. Upton, El Paso, Texas, and Dan P. Eylar, Clifton, Ariz., former newspaperman; one sister, Louise, West Union. William A. Eylar, Democratic district congressman, Sixth Congressional district, Georgetown, is a nephew.

The late Mr. Eylar was perhaps one of the best known criminal lawyers in Southern Ohio. His splendid character and fidelity to the causes he espoused won him friends wherever he happened to be. He was Prosecuting Attorney of Pike county and served as a member of the Waverly school board, besides numerous other positions of trust. He was prominent in Democratic politics in Pike county and a splendid campaign orator. He was a member of the Chillicothe lodge, Knights of Pythias.

The funeral services will be conducted Friday by Rev. C. L. Haas, of the Waverly Methodist church and interment will be made at the Waverly cemetery.

Benjamin Ellsberry

Relative to the death of B. F. Ellsberry, for many years a leading citizen of Ironton and who had many friends here, Tuesday's Irontonian said:

"Benjamin F. Ellsberry, after an illness of almost five years, died Monday afternoon about 4:30 o'clock, and by his death one of the leading citizens of Ironton is removed."

"Mr. Ellsberry was born at New Hope, Brown county, Ohio, March 20, 1848, and was 68 years of age last month."

"He came to Ironton when only 19 years of age, in 1867, and from then until his death he made his home here, entering upon a business career and for many years was one of the leading business men of the city."

"When he first came here he associated with the Straus clothing firm which was located where the Moore cigar factory was located, at the corner of Second and Lawrence streets."

"After that he embarked in the Graduation Time!

What a time of joy to the scholars who have completed their studies when they step out before the public well equipped for the duties of life. Years of toil amid books and figures have well fitted the graduates to face the battle of life with vigor, vim and hopefulness. And it is to our schools we owe a lasting debt of gratitude, for they are steadily turning out the future useful citizens—the young men and young women who are to take up the battles of life and win victory upon victory—one achievement right after the other!

It is quite fitting indeed that the graduates be remembered with gifts. It's the custom these days to show deep seated interest in the graduates by presenting them with some token of regard. And as usual,

Jewelry Fills Every Requirement

Never were we in better shape to fill every want along this line—from beauty pins to diamonds—our stock is absolutely complete to the smallest details. Not one article has been overlooked, anyone of which will make the graduate's heart leap and beat with joy and pleasure. It is indeed an extreme pleasure to show you our lines, for we believe in every piece of jewelry we carry. It must be exactly as represented and our guarantee goes with every piece we sell. A child can buy here with the same security as a grown-up. We take delight in showing our lines to the critical, knowing full well that an inspection will convince that we sell 100 per cent perfect goods.

And best of all we are always willing and anxious to open charge accounts with honest people. If you want to present a gift to a graduate, be he son, brother, sister, daughter or friend, and have not the required amount of money, you can make a small payment down and the balance in equal weekly payments.

DIAMONDS of value and variety—correct countings—artistic designs.

ELGIN OR WALTHAM WRIST WATCHES—Small sizes—beautiful erections of the jewelry arts—in cases that are guaranteed for 20 years, actual value $15 to $16.50. $8.95

Solid Gold Brooches as low as $1.00

Lavalliers with diamond settings $5.00 to $75.00

Newest styles of Moire Purses $1.00 to $6.00

We carry the LARGEST RING STOCK IN THE CITY—all prices, but real values.

We call particular attention to a suitable present for the young men graduates, namely, an ELEGANT ELGIN OR WALTHAM WATCH, movement fitted in a 20 year double stock case, fully guaranteed, for one week $6.45 only

A complete assortment of vest chains, cuff button sets, smoking sets, etc.

If you once buy here, we are sure you will be pleased with our treatment and surprised at the values we give.

MAYOR OF NEW YORK MAKES CHARGE AGAINST CATHOLIC CLERGYMEN

New York, May 24.—The telephone wire tapping investigation today developed in two distinct directions. One involved the use of this method to obtain information regarding the activities of Seymour and Seymour, attorneys said to be interested in war munition contracts. The other had to do with the "Covering" of private telephone wires by the police to gain evidence regarding the conduct of certain Catholic charitable institutions.

In the Seymour case District Attorney Swann promised indictments as the result of a John Doe investigation today before Chief Magistrate McAdoo. If the outcome of this inquiry justified further search, he said, he would take up the whole question of the right of the police to tap wires and look into all the 350 cases in which the police have "listened in" on private telephone conversations since Jan. 1, 1915.

The investigation before the Thompson legislative committee promised further sensations today if Mayor Mitchell carried out his threat to reveal records of approximately 100 conversations taken down by the police over a tapped wire. The mayor at a stormy session of this committee yesterday made a statement for the purpose, he said, of justifying the methods of the police. He charged that certain clergymen of the Catholic church, of which he himself is a communicant, had formed a conspiracy to interfere with the city government and obstruct the administration of the law in relation to the conduct of Catholic charitable institutions.

A statement published today by Monsignor John J. Quinn, chancellor of the Catholic Archdiocese of New York answers the mayor's attack, denies his charges and asserts that "the mayor has been hand in glove with the interests that threaten the existence of child-caring institutions. Protestant, Catholic and Jewish."

ITALIANS FALL IN LINE WITH THEIR DENIALS

Rome, May 24.—The Austrian statement that the Italians surrendered trenches east of Selz is denied in an official bulletin issued yesterday. The bulletin says that the Italians voluntarily abandoned fifty yards of the line of trenches in this vicinity but continue to hold three hundred yards of trenches which they took away from the enemy.

MRS. WAITE

Some time after her father's arrival here, Mrs. Waite said, he developed fainting spells. Waite already has admitted that he inoculated him as well as Mr. Peck with disease germs. The witness told of an occurrence at dinner three days before Mr. Peck's death when Waite served her father with some oysters and later he remarked that he felt unusually drowsy.

She said her father's condition grew gradually worse and she called in Dr. Moore several times.

Miss Hardwick said she lived in the home of Dr. Jacob Cornell, of Somerville, N. J., who testified yesterday that he called at the Waite home the day Mr. Peck died. She testified that she sent the telegram to Percy Peck after Dr. Cornell returned from the Waite apartment and that someone told her to send it. A question as to who directed her was asked out. She was then excused.

Mrs. Clara Peck Waite in continuing her testimony, said her husband went out on "calls" at all times of the day and night, the night before her father died.

Relief in Pulmonary Or Throat Troubles depends largely on the sufferer's ability to rebuild a weakened system, and thus hasten a return of normal body functions.

In this effort much depends on fresh air—light and day—and rest and good food. The patient should refrain from work that overtaxes, and all sanitary precautions should be taken. These common sense measures do not always achieve the desired results unless aided by proper medication.

It is here that Eckman's Alternative has evidenced its worth, for in many cases it has effected lasting benefit. And often such troubles seem to yield to it.

MUST GO TO CITY FOR ORPET JURY

Waukegan, May 24.—The sixth venire summoned for examination as jurors in the case of Will H. Orpet, charged with the murder of Marion Lambert, appeared in court today. Most of the 638 men examined so far have been residents of rural communities and practically all of them have obtained their release from jury duty by professing a fixed opinion in the case. In an attempt to expedite the selection of a jury the new venire has been drawn from residents of the city, in the hope that they will prove less opinionated and more able to pass the requirements of the attorneys. Four men have been sworn for jury and the prosecution, will, it is expected, tender four more to the defense today.

WITH UNPRECEDENTED VIOLENCE BATTLE OF VERDUN CONTINUES. GERMANS SEEK TO REGAIN FORT

Paris, May 24.—The battle around Verdun continues to rage with a violence unexampled even in this vicinity. The Germans are straining every resource in their power to capture Hill No. 304 and Dead Man Hill on the left bank of the Meuse, and to win back the famous Fort Douaumont on the right bank which was wrested from them by General Nivelle's brilliantly planned and executed offensive.

Without full possession of the line from Pepper Hill to Vaux Fort, the Germans cannot hope to get any nearer to the capture of Verdun. Even if they succeeded in taking this line they could not hold it unless they were also in possession of Hill Number 304 and Dead Man Hill, which outflank the line.

Driven to desperation by seeing so much of its work undone, the German command has hurried attack after attack against Fort Douaumont. At the same time it has kept up its onslaught on the left bank of the river to prevent the French transferring any forces to the main scene of attack.

All day yesterday the tide of war ebbed and flowed, inches of ground being won and lost at an appalling cost in men. Again and again, after reducing trenches to a crumbling heap of ruins by a deluge of shells, the German infantry dashed forward only to be caught and swept away by a hurricane of curtain fire from the French batteries and machine guns.

Easy Way to Get Rid of Itching

Don't worry any more about that itching skin-trouble. Just get a jar of resitol ointment and a cake of resitol soap at any drug store. With the resitol soap and warm water bathe the affected parts thoroughly, until they are free from crusts and the skin is softened. Dry very gently, spread on a thin layer of the resitol ointment, and cover with a light bandage. If necessary to protect the clothing, this should be done twice a day. Usually the distressing itching and burning stop with the first treatment, and the skin soon becomes clear and healthy again.

Choosing Your Shampoo Soap
If you select a soap that contains softening, foaming properties like the resitol shampoos in resitol soap, you are not likely to have trouble with dandruff, loss of hair or itching scalp, fatal for the combers' heads.

PRINCE VON BUELOW

Washington, D. C., May 24.—State Department officials were frankly skeptical of the accuracy of the report that Prince Von Buelow was coming to Washington on a special mission from Emperor William. They have received no official or unofficial intimation that such a visit was in prospect.

A high official pointed out that the report originated in London, which to his mind cast doubt upon its truth. It was certain to be widely discussed as a possible peace overture from Germany. The Berlin government, he said, has not yet seen fit to suggest a peace move officially or confidentially in any way.

GERMANS CAPTURE

offensive on the Trentino front and the efforts of the Germans to gain a decision at Verdun are explained in a semi-official statement published here as a result of a concerted effort on the part of the Central Powers to prevent an expected simultaneous attack by the Allies on all fronts.

"The Central Empires," says the statement "wish to prevent, even at the cost of enormous sacrifices of men and material, the Allies from taking the initiative in the war operations and attacking them simultaneously on all fronts. Such is the plan of the Central Powers as revealed by the Trentino front while the Germans are reviving their offensive against Verdun."

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, O. Office Phone 60.

Dear Miss Wise—Will you please publish the answers to these questions in the paper. How often should one wash their hair. My hair is oily and looks very greasy. Please tell me what to do for it. Thanking you very much.

LOUISE.
When the hair is oily it needs to be washed often. I don't think every two weeks is too often for an oily scalp or for light hair. However, it may be cleaned between washings by using a cloth with alcohol and wiping the hair, small strands at a time. This should not be used to any great extent as it tends to dry the hair and scalp.

Dear Miss Wise—Before putting away my furs I want to clean them but don't know what to use. I have brushed them but that does not seem to thoroughly cleanse them.

MAYME.
After brushing free from all dust wet a clean brush in alcohol and saturate the fur down to the hide, then sift plenty of fuller's earth into the fur. Cover them to exclude dust and leave for two days. Shake out, brush all the powder out and smooth the fur with a hot brush. You will find that all grime and grease will be removed. You can buy fuller's earth at the drug store.

Dear Miss Wise—How can I clean white silk gloves so they will not turn yellow.

ADICE.
Wash white silk gloves in lukewarm water and a pure white soap, rinse well in clear cold water and dry them in a towel, or hang in a dark place to dry. This will keep them soft and white.

Fried Eggs are Delicious when cooked in

CRISCO
For Frying—For Shortening—For Cake Making

Then they have only the sweet, natural, delicate, fresh egg taste, the same as when boiled or poached; they are as good to look at as to eat—no burnt edges or black specks; and they are easier than ever to digest.

Use Crisco the next time you fry eggs, and you will be so agreeably surprised that you will be eager to try it for other foods.

No matter where else you use it, you will secure remarkable results, for Crisco embodies all the qualities which a cooking product should have to be equally satisfactory for frying, for shortening, and for cake and bread making.

Crisco is purely vegetable, absolutely clean in origin and manufacture. It stands a very high temperature without burning. It is sweet, delicate, delicious and wholesome.

It is for these reasons that you can use it for frying doughnuts, croquettes, etc., for shortening pastry and for making cake, and secure as remarkable results as when frying eggs.

Expert Watchmaker and Optician
829 Galia Street

Now I wish to know what is required of one attending this event, and in general what takes place. Give details in full and I'll be very thankful. Is it expected that a representative of a class of every year should speak to the guests on any special subject? If so, what should one talk about? Yours most thankfully,

R. E. J.

There is no doubt but that the officers of the Alumni are anxious for you to attend the banquet. If by some oversight you do not receive an invitation notify Mrs. D. A. Bernst, of Galia and Union streets. The regular dues of the Alumni are 25 cents a year. If you attend the banquet you are expected to pay $1 additional. I am informed that the toast this year will be limited. Only those who are notified are to make a talk. Should you be chosen your topic may be assigned. If not, you are at liberty to speak on any subject. In that case some subject referring to school or class spirit or the experiences of life are preferable.

At two-thirty Tuesday afternoon a quiet wedding was solemnized at Lucasville, when Miss Nell Doll and Mr. Cleve Bricker were united in marriage by the Rev. J. C. Pietsmeyer. The bride was attired in a becoming suit of olive green, with hat to match. The ceremony was held in the cozy little home of the young people, in the presence of the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Doll, parents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Bricker, parents of the groom; little Jack Doll, nephew of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Burkett and son, Bobbie; Frank Doll, Pearl Bricker, Mrs. Effie Van Meter, Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Hilling and daughter Marian, Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Pietsmeyer. After congratulations refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. The bride, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Doll, is a charming and popular young lady and has a wide circle of friends. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Bricker and has been employed for a number of years as clerk for J. H. Brant and son at Lucasville.

The many friends of Miss Mae Henderson will be happy to know she has returned from St. Louis, where she attended the Morse School of Expression, to spend the summer vacation.

One of Portsmouth's most accomplished and popular readers, Miss Henderson, has given the art of public speaking a most thorough study in all its different branches, under instruction of the Morse School of Expression, in the perfection of their art, and whose wonderful ability only reflects itself in the talented graduates of Morse School.

Miss Henderson has been requested to re-open her studio, but as yet is undecided as to plans for the future.

Mr. Hugh H. Higgins on Tuesday evening entertained a party of friends on a vacation trip to the end of the Wheelersburg line, for a view of the magnificent Avalon addition east of Wheelersburg. A fine chicken supper at the Baker House wound up the evening's pleasures.

In the party were Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Higgins, Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Gius, the Misses Beatrice and Gena Lindsay, Winnie Love, Bertha Bonnet, Ella Potts, and Messrs. George L. Gableman and Chris Malavazos.

Miss Imogene Matthews has as guests today Miss Grace Morris and Miss Louise Middleton.

Mrs. Bertha Blood's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Wharton, recently celebrated their fifty-third wedding anniversary at Mrs. Blood's home, on Park avenue, where a family dinner was given. Rev. George Horst being a special guest.

Zemo for Dandruff

You do not want a slow treatment when hair is falling and the dandruff is killing the hair roots. Delay means no hair. A bottle of Zemo for 25c or $1.00 for extra large size. Use as directed. For it does the work quickly. It kills the dandruff germ, nourishes the hair roots and immediately stops falling roots. It is sure and safe. It is easy to use and will not stain. Soaps and shampoos are harmful, as they contain alkali. The best thing to use is Zemo, for it is pure and also inexpensive.

Zemo, Cleveland.

The elegant home of Miss Flora Hewitt, of Sixth street, was beautifully decorated with banks of pansies and cut flowers, when the progress club assembled there Monday night to welcome the former members of the club, in honor of its tenth anniversary.

In line to receive the guests were the present officers of the club and the hostesses of the evening: Miss Lenora McNamara, Miss Eleanor Yost, Miss Lulu Newland, Miss Flora Hewitt, Miss Mame Musser, Miss Julia Nickel and Miss Nannie Foley.

During the evening Mrs. Chapman Watts and Miss Ladora White charmingly played Klavich (Honri Whinnawicki) and A Perfect Day (Carrie Jacobs Bond).

Miss Nannie Foley sang sweetly "Beano." Miss Foley was accompanied by Miss Emma Clarke.

A guessing contest was a feature of the evening and Miss Orpha Kitchen, the winner, was presented with a box of lozenges.

Miss McNamara then read greetings from Mrs. Bess Bove Henry, of East Orange, N. J.; Mrs. Florence Shemmer, of Peckham, O.; Miss Mabel Gates, of Clifton Heights, Washington, D. C.; and Miss Alice Stevens, of Mt. Vernon.

Refreshments of yellow and white teas, cake and almonds were served by the hostesses. The favors were dainty lozenge baskets.

The honored guests were Mrs. Lena Kline Reed, Mrs. Charles Taggart, Mrs. George McCure, Mrs. Maud Snow, Mrs. Charles Warnock,

Hamilton Mothers Find Dosing No Longer Necessary

For Croup and Cold Troubles They Just Apply Vick's Vap-O-Rub Well Over Throat and Chest, and Cover With a Warm Flannel Cloth.

The Body Warmth Releases Medicated Vapors that are Inhaled, with each Breath, All Night Long.

A few winters ago when Vick's Vap-O-Rub was first introduced in Hamilton, Ohio, the local druggists presented complimentary jars to a few of their customers, and requested that this new preparation be given a thorough trial and the results reported.

FRED GOWER, 524 N. Seventh Street, reports: "I wish to state that my wife has used Vick's Vap-O-Rub Salve for croup and sore throat on the children, and it seemed to relieve them right away. I used it for general purposes, such as cuts, rashes and sore arms, and was very much satisfied with the results, and I always have a jar in the house."

It for catarrh, cold in the head and sore throat with good results. MRS. SAMUEL EASTER, formerly of Hamilton, now of 2619 Woodhill Road, Cleveland, Ohio, writes: "I used your Vick's Salve for a severe cold in the chest, and it helped me in a little while. Then I gave it to my daughter to use for her habit that was threatened with croup, and it proved satisfactory."

Vick's Vap-O-Rub comes in salve form, and has a two-fold action. Internally it acts like the old-fashioned vapor lamp. When applied to the body, the body warmth releases the medicated vapors in the form of vapors. These vapors are inhaled, with each breath, all night long, carrying the medication direct to the parts affected. Externally Vick's is absorbed through the skin, acting like a liniment or a blister, and aiding the vapors inhaled to relieve the congestion. You will find it superior to internal medicines for all forms of cold troubles, from head colds, asthma and catarrhal troubles, down to chest colds, sore throat, in gripe, bronchitis or influenza pneumonia. Three sizes, 25c, 50c or $1.00.

COUNCILMEN IN FAVOR OF HIGH LICENSE FOR THE STREET FAIRS

That members of the city council are in favor of the passage of an ordinance providing for a high license for street fairs that fill engagements here and strict regulation, is forcibly shown in the interviews they gave The Times Tuesday evening on the street fair controversy.

Every member approached is in favor of an adequate license and strict regulation. Each member will express his attitude in the matter excepting Councilman Steward M. Johnson, who is in Yonkers on business.

The interviews follow:

PRESIDENT JOHN W. FLOOD

"I sincerely hope that the ordinance committee of the city council draft an ordinance covering the street fair situation that will make it almost prohibitive for street fairs to visit the city. I am positively opposed to street fairs as I cannot see where they do the city any good whatever."

P. E. ROUSH

"I have felt all along that street fairs should pay a license within reason and that they should be strictly regulated. I can see no reason why street fairs should come into the city without paying a license."

G. W. VANDERVOORT

"I am in favor of licensing street fairs so high that only the absolutely first class organizations of this character could pay the license. Street fairs never help any city and the license covering the local situation should be very stiff."

EMORY P. RICKEY

"I am in favor of making the street fair license so high that they will all give the city a wide berth. I have yet to find any street fair that adds to the prosperity of a city. I certainly favor a high license and strict regulation."

HAROLD RICE

"I am chairman of the ordinance committee of council and I believe the only way the street fair problem can be handled satisfactorily is for council to provide for a very high license and strict regulation. If they come in under these conditions all well and good. The city is entitled to a stiff license fee from street fairs."

WILLIAM CRAMER

"I would rather not be quoted on the street fair controversy until council takes up this matter officially." Mr. Cramer stated last night when asked about his attitude in this matter. "I will say this much, however, I am in favor of an adequate license."

C. W. WILSON

"I have never yet seen a street fair that adds to the moral tone of any city. I have all along favored a high license and strict regulation. The sooner council takes this action the better off the city will be."

EARLYTOWN "GUN MAN" IS HELD TO GRAND JURY

Arthur Fillmore, the Earlytown youth, who still tried to escape after he had been "winged" by a pistol bullet fired by Patrolman William Osborn, was held to the grand jury by Mayor Kaps, Tuesday evening, on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon. His bond was fixed at $500. Three other affidavits against the youth will also be sent before the grand jury.

Fillmore pleaded not guilty to the charge which fixed May 18 as the date of his offense. It was on that day that foreigners surprised him in Nick Argros' home on Plum street, he holding them at bay at the point of a revolver, until he could leap through a window. The defendant's counsel, Attorney B. F. Kimble, raised the point that he did not hide his weapon, instead holding it in plain view of the foreigners, but one witness, Victor Turvel, testified to seeing Fillmore pocket the weapon after he had jumped through the window. Argros and Gus Dallas were also witnesses against Fillmore. Mrs. Anne Dye, of 2321 Eighth street, testified to seeing Fillmore throw a gun away when officers took after him Tuesday morning. A separate charge of carrying a concealed weapon was filed against him for May 23. Fillmore denied that the gun found was his property.

The other two charges against Fillmore are for entering the Argros home in the day season with intent to rob it and of entering the home of Lucia Filenitti and Bruno Moroni at 2302 Ninth street, on February 8, and stealing a 32 calibre revolver, two razors, a coat, shirt, one pair of pants, gloves, two pocketbooks, twelve lead pencils and a knife all of the total value of $19.75. The accused's father, Taylor Fillmore, during his first visit to the police headquarters Tuesday, said his son had been reading yellow back dime novels with such regularity that he had come to imagine himself as one of the kind

She starts like a Sprinter at the Crack of the Gun Jeffery Six

INSTANT response—spectacular performance—riding comfort and driving comfort—surpassing simplicity of design—these have made the Jeffery Six nationally known as the car which teaches you what the word MOVE really means. Step on the accelerator and the car is off like a sprinter at the crack of a gun—like a FLASH.

She picks up speed in a distance so short that you can't believe your eyes. You hit forty miles before you think you've hit twenty—and then—
Step on the accelerator.
You'll have a new sensation. She literally leaps—like an eager thoroughbred—to tremendous speed in a moment.
Yet the motor is so quiet that men who haven't had their cars for more than a few days almost put the self-starter out of commission by throwing it in when the car is standing still and they think the motor has stopped—when it hasn't.
And it's all velvety power and velvety speed. There is no vibration—no uncomfortable jolting—nothing but superlative riding comfort and driving comfort—because of the wonderful motor and simple chassis construction.

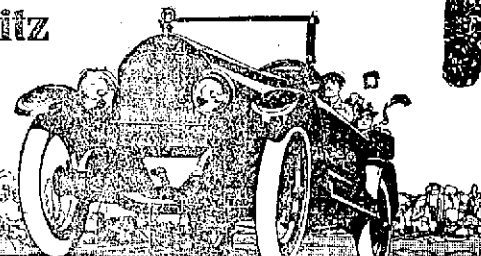

Have you seen the Jeffery Six? If you haven't—do it now. You gain nothing by delay. Our allotment is rapidly dwindling and the factory cannot increase its output. The price is $1450—and the amount of usable value, power and speed which you get for every dollar of that price is best shown by the fact that within thirty days after the first appearance of this car the Thomas B. Jeffery Company had to double its planned output of it—because of the immediate and extraordinary demand. Come in and look it over—and ask us to demonstrate every claim we make.

State Liquor Inspectors Get Busy, Bootleggers Are Caught

The recent activities of two inspectors of the Ohio State Liquor License Commission were responsible for quite a gathering in Mayor H. H. Kaps' court Tuesday evening.

The officers of the Triangle Club, a colored social organization, operating in the rooms over Johnson & Johnson's saloon at No. 1016 Waller street, appeared before the mayor upon orders of the two sleuths, John M. Powell and Everett Spurlock.

The club officers were enlightened as to how they had been guilty of technically violating the liquor laws in that they dispensed refreshments on Sundays through a ticket system instead of members having their own individual lockers and each to personally look after the purchase of being and keeping of his own supply of "wet goods."

They were dismissed with the warning to strictly keep within the law in the future or other measures would be adopted against them.
Spurlock is a colored man and an officer of recognized ability and through his clever operations in the North End, Sunday, May 14 caused the arrest Tuesday of John "Chicken" Nichols, Chas. "Peggy" Foster, Chas. "Jake" Haley and Walter Barber, negroes. Spurlock disguised himself as a ragged negro bum and loitered about Paradise alley and other favorite haunts of the usual Sabbath day "parched throat" saloon.
He met "Chicken" Nichols and whispered to him how sadly in need he was of a "bracer." The ever obliging "Chicken" steered him to Charles "Kitty" Collins, but that young man, according to Spurlock's testimony in court, told him that he did not happen to have any "booze" just then.
Nichols next took his new acquaintance to Sis Polly's home in Paradise alley. A woman was standing in the doorway. Nichols left Spurlock talking to her while he himself repaired upstairs. A moment later he came back downstairs with a pint of

Valuable Health Hints For Our Readers

CATARRH
Just because you have a cold and spit and your nose is wet, cold, red, sore and a nuisance, don't merely put it up. You can't cure catarrh by greasing your nose. Take S. S. S. regularly and you will drive catarrhal poisons out of your blood. The membranes will soon recover and no longer contribute to accumulate the mucus that gathers and thickens into catarrh. S. S. S. stimulates the cells of the mucous membrane to secrete their own essential nutriment. Rapid recovery from catarrhal inflammation in the stomach, kidney, bladder and all membranes is the result.

MALARIA
Throughout the country, wherever malaria abounds, are happy, joyful people to whom S. S. S. has given wonderful help in the treatment of malaria after the most sickening torture imaginable. The patient complexion of malaria's victims, the chills and fever, the malarial dysentery that seems to defy all other treatment, the malarial leg, the enlarged liver, the persistent anemia where the blood turns to water and the system wastes away. These are the conditions that S. S. S. so effectively assists in overcoming by helping to restore the blood to its natural vigor.

STUBBORN SORES
Sometimes a sore spot becomes indolent. The tissues surrounding it lose tone and are unable to provide sufficient nutriment to stop the drain. It is then chronic. Just saturate your blood with S. S. S. This is quickly accomplished, as S. S. S. is naturally assimilated the same as milk or any other healthful food.

Nature acts with marvelous rapidity when given the proper assistance, and S. S. S. so stimulates cellular activity that the parts surrounding an ulcer secrete from the blood the materials that make new tissue. Thus the sore spot rapidly heals in a natural way.

Local applications for any skin disease will afford protection from within.

POISONED BLOOD.
So many different things contribute to poison the blood and the effect is so startling that the sufferer becomes panic-stricken and is led to use harmful drugs. If you have any blood trouble, get a bottle of S. S. S. and take according to directions. Don't take anything else. Poisoned blood is bad enough without ruining your bones, joints, teeth and vitals with minerals. S. S. S. so stimulates cellular activity that they reject all poisonous influences and select only those materials in the blood that make healthy tissue. This is why its assistance toward recovery is so noticeable and at times remarkable.

S. S. S. is welcome to the weakest stomach and is assimilated just as readily as the most nutritious food. It has helped to cure a host of sufferers.

RHEUMATISM.
In any form of rheumatism give the blood a good effectual cleansing with S. S. S.

Use this remedy for three days and take a hot salt water bath to open the pores. This relieves the lungs and kidneys and assists S. S. S. to utilize the skin as the principal avenue of elimination.

Avoid salts, calomel and other drastic purgatives, as they absorb the moisture from the walls and membranes of the intestines, weaken the muscular action, produce chronic constipation and thus stagnate the system with rheumatic poisons. Get a bottle of S. S. S. at any drug store. Don't take a substitute.

S. S. S. is purely vegetable and is prepared only by the Swift Specific Co., 271 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Write for special booklet on any of the diseases mentioned. If medical advice is wanted, write for that also to address given above. Both booklet and medical advice are free.

This Food Is New

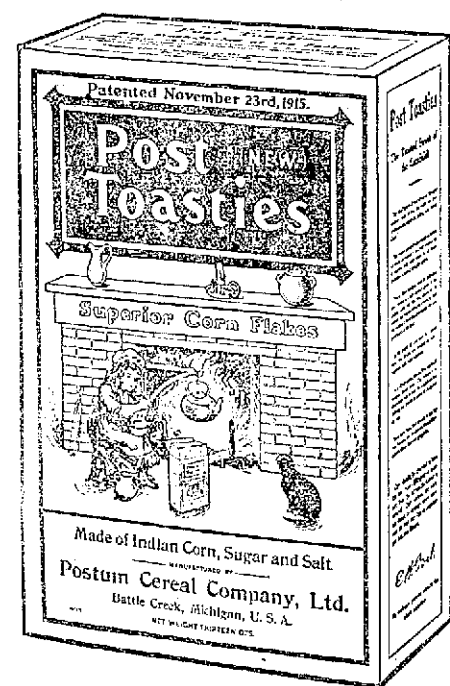

The United States Patent Office has recognized that fact and granted a patent both on the form, and the method of making.

NEW Post Toasties

No other flaked corn food on the market shares this honor—no other equals it in form or flavour.

Several distinctive features characterize this new and economical food delicacy.

Old style "corn flakes" do not possess much real flavour of their own. Old-fashioned methods of making didn't bring it out. They depended largely for their taste on the sugar and cream or milk, you ate with them. You were never asked to test the flavour by eating them dry.

We want you to test New Post Toasties by eating some dry, fresh from the package. You'll get the flavour at once. The new way of cooking, rolling and toasting under quick, intense heat brings out the sealed-up goodness of the grain.

New Post Toasties do not mush down when milk or cream is added. They don't crumble or "choff" in the package or in the dish. There's substance to them, and so wonderfully delicious as to make you call for more.

A WIDE DIFFERENCE

When the treasury department issued directions to custodians of all federal buildings to carefully save all waste papers and the department of commerce followed this with advice to families and business houses to carefully conserve both paper and rags, and market them, at best the press generally treated the matter flippantly and many even jeered at the government as engaging in small business. That shows the difference between this country and Germany and explains, in a large measure, why that country has been able to stand so firmly against foes that beset her from all sides—she conserves her resources in all directions, wasting nothing. In Germany newspapers publish no blank editions, so-called, each one, according to its importance is limited to a certain number of pages and there is a narrow limit over which all may go. That may seem unreasonable, but it is as nothing to the rigidity of the general rule of conservation. For no one can buy a paper today unless he return at the time of the purchase the paper he bought yesterday, which is eventually carried to the mill to be mashed into fresh stock.

Newspapers of this country are paying today, unless buying under annual contract, twice as much for stock as they did a year ago. Undoubtedly there would be a saving to them of millions of dollars annually, if they cut their cloth, a little closer, so to speak, and the people had more of the habit of thrift and preserved and sold to the rag man old papers, magazines and rags. Many of us, in a foolish vanity, thinking the saving thus made is too small to concern one's self about, but if they take that view of it, they might do as a good many housewives are doing, store this waste until it begins to get in the way and then give it to Wesley Mission, which sends a wagon after it. That in itself shows how important such saving is because this worthy institution finds it worth while to gather up the small lots offered it here and there.

A THING WORTH WHILE

It may seem quite enough has been said about the celebration of the inauguration of traffic service as far east as Wheelersburg, but we can not refrain from adding that that ride of three hundred of the business men of the village and the short sojourn was altogether worth while. It was a demonstration imposing enough in numbers, but its success went further than that. It brought the town and country in closer ties and it brought the forces that dominate Portsmouth into nearer fellowship. Youth and age surged to the crowding of the cars, capitalist, artisan, banker, merchant, marched together in nearer step than they have ever been before. We have been in many crowds, but never a one where good feeling was so spontaneous and contagious as in this.

It has come. The Colonel has accepted the pressing invitation of his friends and decided to be a candidate for the Republican nomination for president and in doing so he has established a set of qualifications for the Republican nominee which only Theodore Roosevelt can meet. But where does this flap to the Republicans leave John Reilly? That's what we would like to know.

That is same ball team that is carrying the colors of Portsmouth on to victory this season. We feel particularly proud of them for didn't we help start them on their glorious career by hoodooing them in their first game down at Maysville?

Ironton has let a contract for a part of her new water works, but that is no sign that it is going to be built. One of the newspapers up there is hammering the project and declares that the letting of the contract is illegal. Well, we don't know as to that. But anyway it is this continual bickering and scrapping among themselves that has kept down the growth of Ironton. If a city cannot go ahead without scrapping and fighting it offers no inducements to the stranger to locate within its gates.

Here is an item that will never see the light of day through any G. O. P. organ: George C. Perkins, for twenty-two years Republican senator from California, has sent a personal letter to Woodrow Wilson heartily and unreservedly commending his administration as president.

We have received a very personal letter from Madame Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the National Woman Suffrage Association in which she informed us the leaders of the Democratic party were all for equal suffrage and that she hoped and expected that we would cast our vote in favor of a suffrage plank at the Democratic national convention at St. Louis. We regretfully informed the lady by letter that much as we revered and respected the eminent leaders of the Democratic party, we did not crowd enthusiastic over equal suffrage and we would be compelled, by our convictions, to vote against any suffrage resolution that came up at the St. Louis convention. Whereupon we suppose that the suffrage advocates will immediately shut up shop and say at home.

The St. Louis convention hall will seat only 11,000 spectators and the managers of the show are figuring how they can accommodate the 25,000, who have already applied for admission.

DAYS THAT STICK IN THE MEMORY

NAMING THE BABY

The North Carolina Durham Sun asks of the proud parents: "What are you going to name the baby?" It may seem an impertinent query to some, who will say that it is their own business. But it is not altogether. The baby ought to have something to say about it, but it can't express itself upon the subject just now. Later on it may have considerable to say and then it will find its cognomen is really its business and the assumption of its forebears that they alone had it in hand was a cruel mistake. For what was imposed upon the bantling at its christening the man or woman has to bear the burden or the satisfaction of all through life. Which all is just suggestive, that if parents exercise the tyranny of love in naming the baby, they should have sensible regard for its future and call it something that will not prove a misfit or humiliation through life.

We expect to run out of green paper for our Pink Extra today and for a day or two we will have to appear in pure white. However, we have the shipping bill for a car load of pale pink news that was shipped on May 17th and it should be dropping in mail any day now. It may interest our subscribers to know that this car load cost us $1762, pink stock being considerably higher than ordinary news.

Some of the troubles on the Mexican border may be accounted for in a story told in this week's Collier's in which a regular army lieutenant is quoted as saying that every time he sent out two or three men to arrest a Mexican or get information they always came back with their man or the information. If he sent a dozen men they always came back with a tale of having been attacked and a dozen or so dead Mexicans in their wake. Catch the point!

Our young niece has enthusiastically called off all other plans for the summer months since she discovered that we were going to build a summer camp over along the classic waters of Brush Creek just as soon as the good, kind, overworked architect could get the plans redrafted and the contract let. Billy Robin Spies A Stranger

"WAKE UP! WAKE UP! WAKE UP!" sang Billy Robin at the top of his voice. "Morning's fine! Morning's fine! Morning's fine!" he added, with a burst of joy. But not a creature answered.

"Very well," said Billy, not one whit disturbed by the fact that he had to sing alone. "If everybody in the back yard is too busy eating to answer me, I'll fly around to the front and sing."

He flitted his tail gaily and flew around the house to the mulberry tree that grew in the front yard. "Wake up! Wake up! Wake up!" sang Billy. "Morning's fine! Morning's fine! Morning's fine!" he added, with a burst of joy. But not a creature answered.

"Where is everybody?" wondered Billy, and he looked carefully around the yard. He saw no creature, not a friend or foe, but he did see something that made him look again, and look closely. He saw funny little ridges and humps all over the newly-raked and seeded front lawn. Curious little hills and ridges, that turned this way and that, and that wiggled and wiggled all over the yard.

"Now isn't that the strangest thing I ever saw?" he asked himself thoughtfully. "This is too much like a mystery for me," decided Billy when he had watched the still growing earth pile for several minutes. "I'm going to the back yard where my friends are and where such things don't happen." And back he flew, leaving the mystery unsolved.

New York, May 24—Jimmy Lynch, the oldest office boy in captivity, in chuck full of woe. He fairly cooed it. Jimmy acts as a salt water Gangster for the ship news reporters. He owns a $1 watch, which he bought six years ago. Recently it refused to tick and Jimmy took it to a jeweler.

The jeweler made a post-mortem examination and when Jimmy called for the verdict next day his watch was handed him with a piece of rope tied around its stem. "No hope," was the mournful verdict of the jeweler. "Might as well consign it to the well known Davy Jones's locker."

"What's the matter?" asked Jim, alarmed. "Found a cockroach inside." "That's what plugged up the works, eh?" "No," replied the jeweler. "The cockroach had been keeping the thing going, but he died at his post."

A lady from the West, who isn't ashamed to ask questions, dined at the Astor with S. Jay Kaufman, the boulevardier, the other night. She asked him how the hotel got the ice inside the water bottles.

He explained in three methods. He said first that a small piece of ice from a five-cent restaurant nearby was pushed through the neck of the bottle and the bottle was then brought into the Astor. When the ice realized where it was, it swelled up with pride.

The second reason given was that a young man from Iceland gave the water a cold look through the neck of the bottle each day until it froze. The third was that the hotel sends several million bottles to the river, when the weather is below zero and when the water freezes inside the bottles are placed in cold storage until wanted.

When Miss Edith Kleeth came to New York she had no idea of matrimony. She just fell into it—literally speaking. She was galloping in Central Park when her mount slipped and threw her to the bridge path. Capt. Stanton Leroy was riding behind a short distance and jumped off in time to pick the young lady up.

She discovered that they were both stopping at the Majestic and the romance was soon in full bloom. Capt. Leroy returned to England to do some fighting and if he comes out unscathed they will be married in California next October.

Central Park is responsible for many romances. It's always leaping into the front page and there seems to be something about the place that has a great attraction for love-making couples.

The kids will be a-leavin' at the school room pretty soon. And spill outdoors and go leavin' off across the field of daisies. And the blooms'll bend to meet them, and the breeze will kiss their hair. And the streams'll sing nonsense, and the bird'll wait for them there. And the trees'll bend their branches for them to catch hold and climb. I do wish that I was younger, when it gets vacation time.

Not that I want a vacation, no, no. I am worked too hard. With my duties in the city, and my fussin' round the yard. It's just that I want the freedom they have when school is done. That the little sprouts of springtime must feel when they reach the sun.

I just want to feel like they do when they see the open door. And they know that school is ended and that they are free once more.

Just the feelin', just the youngin' goin' surfin' through the vines. Till I want to kick my heel up and go down the country lanes. Or go off across the prairie, where as the wind that blows.

Plungin' by the wayside spring, bendin' down to smell a rose. Plungin' in to swim the rivers that go windin' to the sea. Just to take a short vacation from my years, and to be free!

PARIS ADMITS GAIN BY TEUTONS NEAR DEAD MAN HILL

Paris, May 24.—A powerful offensive was undertaken by the Germans last night to the east of Dead Man Hill on the Verdun front. The attempt in general was unsuccessful, the war office report of this afternoon says, but after a fierce hand to hand struggle, the attacking forces made their way into a portion of the village of Cumieres.

MUST GO TO CITY FOR ORPET JURY

Waukegan, May 24.—The sixth venire summoned for examination as jurors in the case of Will H. Uppel, charged with the murder of Marion Lambert, appeared in court today. Most of the 636 men examined so far have been residents of rural communities and practically all of them have obtained their release from jury duty by professing a fixed opinion in the case. In an attempt to expedite the selection of a jury the new venire has been drawn from residents of the city, in the hope that they will prove less opinionated and more able to pass the requirements of the attorney.

The execution was performed in the traditional manner by a headman with a broad axe. VILLA BANDS REORGANIZED

Columbus, N. M., May 24.—Reorganization of at least two of Villa's scattered bands were reported here officially today. These bands, recruited by agitators among the villages of the foot hills of Southwestern Chihuahua are said to be making their way slowly northward through the mountains. WITH UNPRECEDENTED VIOLENCE BATTLE OF VERDUN CONTINUES; GERMANS SEEK TO REGAIN FORT

Paris, May 24.—The battle around Verdun continues to rage with a violence unexampled even in this vicinity. The Germans are straining every resource in their power to capture Hill No. 304 and Dead Man Hill on the left bank of the Meuse, and to win back the famous Fort Douaumont on the right bank which was wrested from them by General Nivelle's brilliantly planned and executed offensive.

Without full possession of the line from Pepper Hill to Vaux Fort, the Germans cannot hope to get any nearer to the capture of Verdun. Even if they succeeded in taking this line they could not hold it unless they were also in possession of Hill Number 304 and Dead Man Hill, which flank the line.

Driven to desperation by seeing so much of its work undone, the German's command has hurried attack after attack against Fort Douaumont. At the same time it has kept up its onslaught on the left bank of the river to prevent the French transferring any forces to the main scene of attack.

All day yesterday the tide of war ebbed and flowed, inches of ground being won and lost at an appalling cost in men. Again and again, after reducing trenches to a crumbling heap of ruins by a deluge of shells, the German infantry dashed forward only to be caught and swept away by a hurricane of certain fire from the French batteries and machine guns.

MAYOR OF NEW YORK MAKES CHARGE AGAINST CATHOLIC CLERGYMEN

New York, May 24.—The telephone wire tapping investigation today developed in two distinct directions. One involved the use of this method to obtain information regarding the activities of Seymour and Seymour attorneys said to be interested in war munition contracts. The other had to do with the "Covering" of private telephone wires by the police to gain evidence regarding the conduct of certain Catholic charitable institutions.

In the Seymour case District Attorney Swann promised indictments as the result of a John Doe investigation today before Chief Magistrate MeAdoo. If the outcome of this inquiry justified further search, he said, he would take up the whole question of the right of the police to tap wires and look into all the 350 cases in which the police have "listened in" on private telephone conversations since Jan. 1, 1915.

"Hitting In Clutch" Won Opening Game From Lexington

Spencer's Smitters Won Tuesday's Struggle 6-3; 2 Games At Park Today

ACQUIRING an early lead has become such a delightful pastime with the Champs that they simply cannot get out of the habit and the fans are anxious for them to continue their first inning cannonading. After a day of enforced idleness because J. P. Weeper copiously Monday the Spencer men climbed gleefully into their winning stride yesterday and won another game, this time defeating the Lexington Colts, who showed for the first time this season in Millbrook. It was a 6 to 3 affair, bugs.

For a while it looked like the Colts would be annihilated, but they came back to life strongly in the seventh and eighth innings and threw a scare, a life sized one, into the camp of the Spencer men. So much of a scare was it that Manager Spencer flashed an S. O. S. to Jacobus in the eighth and Pitcher John Ferguson, who to relieve a splitting headache, had taken ten grains of aspirin before the game, retired to the club house to meditate. But "Ferg" got the satisfaction of seeing his rival hurler Lingrel sent to the bench after he had developed a spasm of wildness and tossed his game away. Jacobus wobbled a wee bit in the eighth and two runs were scored before he settled down, but the sneaks were loaded by Ferguson. In the ninth Big Larry got down to business. He fanned Moran, got Devereaux on a fly all the way to short and Wright was not right for he fled right into Rightfielder Dills' paws.

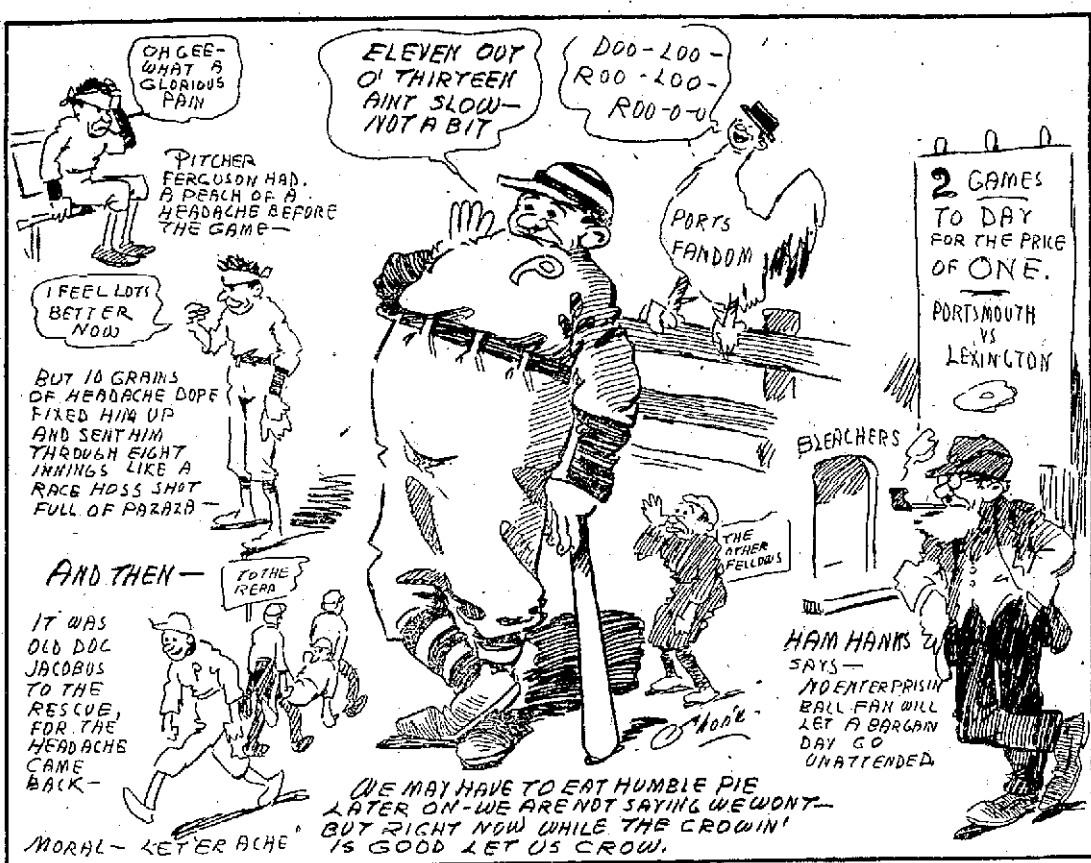

Lexington had a glorious chance to pile up an early lead in the opening frame, but an accurate toss by Mr. Henry in left rudely spoiled their chances. Devereaux lined a hard smash to left. Wright trying to put one on the "door" forced Devereaux at second. McClelland and Beers singled sharply to left, but Wright was nailed at the plate trying to score. Thomas walked for the third out.

Portsmouth made one hit less than Lexington in the first inning, but scored two more runs. Dills ambled on four wide ones. While threw out Bauer, Dills taking second. Fisher ranned one into left. Dills scoring and Fisher took second. McElroy two bases to left center and Fisher ran home. Dills had the hit and run on, but he popped to McClelland and the latter nabbed Fisher before he could get back to second.

The fifth was productive of two more runs. Demore walked. Barrett threw out Spencer, a flashy bit of infielding Bush walked and he and Demore executed a double steal. Beers failing to make the throw to either sock. With three and two on him Ferguson sent a liner over first and Demore and Bush rounded. Dills also walked but Bauer hit a double play ball.

Orray for Frank Eanner. He broke into the Cincinnati-New York game yesterday. He ran for Clarke in the ninth inning when it looked like the Reds were in for a winning rally.

Double Plays—McClelland and Barrett; Barrett and Devereaux; Barrett, McClelland, Devereaux. Wild Pitches—Ferguson, Thomas. Empire—Crown.

McClelland, who is wielding a mean footpik this season, lined out three hits out of four trips from the dugout. The second line up who whirled his bickery around three times.

Bauer has gone hitless in two straight games. He failed to get the ash against one solidly yesterday. But today the story may be different.

McElroy hit safely the first three times up and then lofted high and after Wright in center.

Lingrel has started twice this season against the Champs and each time he has been blanketed and led off the field. He was wild yesterday and didn't seem to have his usual stuff.

Come to think about it the Colts have lost five straight to Portsmouth, four in Lexington and one here. Oh well the season is young. Maybe it will be a month before the Colts win one here.

Manager Guyon did most of the coaching at third. He was on his toes all the way and peled out a safe one.

Ferguson fanned Thomas in the first, Guyon in the second, Wright and McClelland in the third. While in the fourth, Wright and Beers in the sixth.

Barrett committed highway robbery in the fifth when he speared Spencer's sizzler with his unclashed hand and tossed out the local manager at first. It was a wonderful bit of fielding.

Lexington winds up the present series here Thursday. Portsmouth goes to Charleston Friday and the Colts return home to play four games with Massville.

Fans Like Biddy

Portsmouth fans like Biddy Beers' hustling work behind the bat. Biddy is always in there trying. His much can be said truthfully of his back stopping. He has a fine arm and knows every angle of the game. He nipped Dilly trying to steal second yesterday, but Demore and Bush crossed Biddy up in the fifth and duffly executed a double steal. They subsequently scored on Ferguson's line smash over Devereaux's head.

Reds Are Beaten

Attracted with a thumping headline before the game started Tuesday, Cincinnati's "Reds" suffered a crushing defeat at the hands of the "Giants" in a game that was a real battle. The Reds began to grow faint, he said. The plate began bobbing around of him in the seventh and when he showed signs of aeroplaning he felt the biting effects of cold steel. The old family book and Jacobus' pumped into the game. Ferguson had lots of sleep as he fanned seven Colts in as many innings, but Col. Aspin got the better of him and he retreated to the clubhouse. He lost his headache.

GOT HIS DAILY BINGLE

Demore played another swell game at short yesterday and he looks better every day. He skipped over acres of cane-sawed territory Tuesday and handled in balls that were fired afar and near. His work is finished. He got his daily bingle.

MAC OLD BOY IS THERE

Staggered Off Field

"I simply staggered off the diamond when Manager Spencer sent me off the mound in the eighth yesterday," Purdy Ferguson said last night. "Never again will I take anything for a head—when I have to go in and pitch a game that day."

Bargain Day At Millbrook; First Game At 2 O'Clock

Remember fans, the first game begins at 2 o'clock sharply this afternoon. Manager Spencer will use Jacobus and King and Manager Guyon of the Kentuckians will probably use Hanna and of the way.

Masonic Bowling League Will Give Fine Banquet

What is expected to be one of the most enjoyable occasions in the history of the Masonic Bowling League, will be the banquet to be served at the Temple W. Sheridan. The banquet will be held in a most beautiful hall, the dining room of the Temple. It will be the first time that the league has given a banquet. The banquet will be given to the members of the league and their families. The banquet will be given to the members of the league and their families. The banquet will be given to the members of the league and their families.

Colts Played Snappy Game

Under the able leadership of Manager Howard Guyon the Colts displayed lots of pep and kept hustling all the time. They plugged away in spite of the early lead accumulated by the Spencer smitters and made the game a great deal more interesting.

Hustle Them Up Mr. Crone

There is one thing Empire Crone has failed to do since he has made his appearance in Millbrook and that is to keep the players on the move. Only one game has been played in less than two hours since he arrived here. The fans want to see the players hustle in and out of the field. It adds zest to the game and permits the game to be over at a reasonable hour. Hustle them up, Crone.

Isn't the Giants sleeping soundly? Well, we rise to shun "they are that." That is their record. They have not lost a game in their western trip. Undoubtedly they will continue to be successful on their western trip.

A WIDE DIFFERENCE

When the treasury department issued directions to custodians of all federal buildings to carefully save all waste papers and the department of commerce followed this with advice to families and business houses to carefully conserve both paper and rags, and market them, at best the press generally treated the matter lightly and many even jeered at the government as engaging in small business. That shows the difference between this country and Germany and explains, in a large measure, why that country has been able to stand so firmly against foes that beset her from all sides—she conserves her resources in all directions, wasting nothing. In Germany newspapers publish no blanket editions, so-called, each one, according to its importance is limited to a certain number of pages and there is a narrow limit over which all may go. That may seem unreasonable, but it is as nothing to the rigidity of the general rule of conservation. For no one can buy a paper today unless he return at the time of the purchase the paper he bought yesterday, which is eventually carried to the mill to be mashed into fresh stock.

Newspapers of this country are paying today, unless buying under annual contract, twice as much for stock as they did a year ago. Doubtless there would be a saving to them of millions of dollars annually, if they cut their cloth, a little closer, so to speak, and the people had more of the habit of thrift and preserved and sold to the rag man old papers, magazines and rags. Many of us, in a foolish vanity, thinking the saving thus made is too small to concern one's self about, but if they take that view of it, they might do as a good many housewives are doing, store this waste until it begins to get in the way and then give it to Westley Mission, which sends a wagon after it. That in itself shows how important such saving is because this worthy institution finds it worth while to gather up the small lots offered it here and there.

A THING WORTH WHILE

It may seem quite enough has been said about the celebration of the inauguration of traffic service as far east as Wheelersburg, but we can not refrain from adding that that ride of three hundred of the business men of the village and the short sojourn was altogether worth while. It was a demonstration imposing enough in numbers, but its success went further than that. It brought the town and country in closer ties and it brought the forces that dominate Portsmouth into nearer fellowship. Youth and age surged in the crowding of the cars, capitalist, artisan, banker, merchant, marched together in nearer step than they have ever been before. We have been in many crowds, but never a one where good feeling was so spontaneous and contagious as in this.

It has come. The Colonel has accepted the pressing invitation of his friends and decided to be a candidate for the Republican nomination for president and in doing so he has established a set of qualifications for the Republican nominee which only Theodore Roosevelt can meet. But where does this flop to the Republicans leave John Reilly? That's what we would like to know.

That is some ball team that is carrying the colors of Portsmouth on to victory this season. We feel particularly proud of them for didn't we help start them on their glorious career by honoring them in their first game down at Maysville?

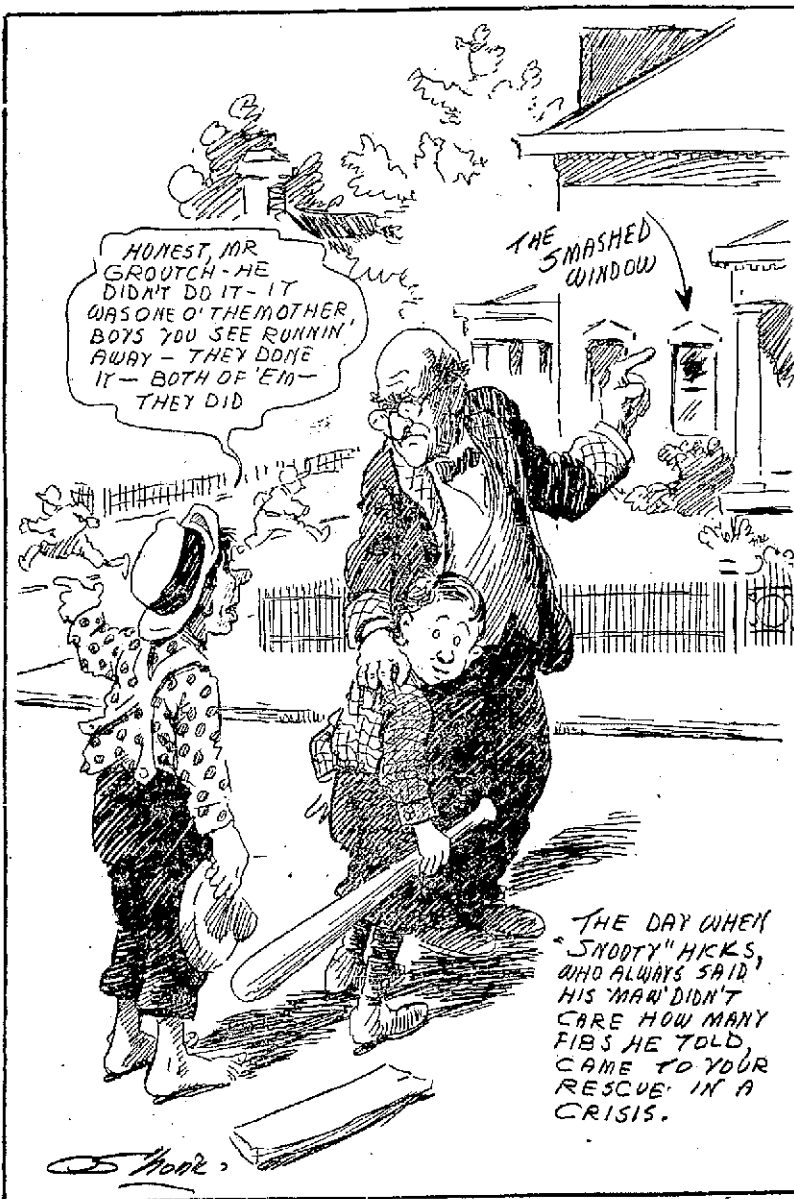

Ironton has let a contract for a part of her new water works, but that is no sign that it is going to be built. One of the newspapers up there is hammering the project and declares that the letting of the contract is illegal. Well, we don't know as to that. Anyway it is this continual nicker and scrapping among themselves that has kept down the growth of Ironton. If a city cannot go ahead without scrapping and fighting it offers no inducements to the stranger to locate within its gates.

Here is an item that will never see the light of day through any G. O. P. organ: George C. Perkins, for twenty-two years Republican senator from California, has sent a personal letter to Woodrow Wilson heartily and unreservedly commending his administration as president.

We have received a very personal letter from Madame Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the National Woman Suffrage Association in which she informed us the leaders of the Democratic party were all for equal suffrage and that she hoped and expected that we would cast our vote in favor of a suffrage plank at the Democratic national convention at St. Louis. We regretfully informed the lady by letter that much as we revered and respected the eminent leaders of the Democratic party, we did not grow enthusiastic over equal suffrage and we would be compelled, by our convictions, to vote against any suffrage resolution that came up at the St. Louis convention. Whereupon we suppose that the suffrage advocates will immediately shut up shop and stay at home.

The St. Louis convention hall will seat only 11,000 spectators and the managers of the show are figuring how they can accommodate the 25,000 who have already applied for admission.

DAYS THAT STICK IN THE MEMORY

NAMING THE BABY

The North Carolina Durham Sun asks the question: "What are you going to name the baby?" It may seem an impertinent query to some, who will say that is their own business. But it is not altogether. The baby ought to have something to say about it, but it can't express itself upon the subject just now. Later on it may have considerable to say and then it will find its cognomen is really its business and the assumption of its forebears that they alone had it in hand was a cruel mistake. For what was imposed upon the bawling at its christening the man or woman has to bear the burden or the satisfaction of all through life. Which all is just suggestive, that if parents exercise the tyranny of love in "naming the baby", they should have sensible regard for its future and call it something that will not prove a misfit or humiliation through life.

We expect to run out of green paper for our Pink Extra today and for a day or two we will have to appear in pure white. However, we have the shipping bill for a car load of pale pink news that was shipped on May 17th and it should be dropping in most any day now. It may interest our subscribers to know that this car load cost us $1762, pink stock being considerably higher than ordinary news.

Some of the troubles on the Mexican border may be accounted for in a story told in this week's Collier's in which a regular army lieutenant is quoted as saying that every time he sent out two or three men to arrest a Mexican or get information they always came back with their man or the information. If he sent a dozen men they always came back with a tale of having been attacked and a dozen or so dead Mexicans in their wake. Catch the point?

Our young niece has enthusiastically called off all other plans for the summer months since she discovered that we were going to build a summer camp over along the classic waters of Brush Creek just as soon as the good, kind, overworked architect could get the plans rounded up and the contract let. BedTime Tales

Billy Robin Spies A Stranger

"WAKE UP! WAKE UP! WAKE UP!" sang Billy Robin at the top of his voice.

"Morning's fine! Morning's fine! Morning's fine!" he added, with a burst of joy. But not a creature answered.

"Very well," said Billy, not one word disturbed by the fact that he had to sing alone. "If everybody in the back yard is too busy eating to answer me, I'll fly around to the front and sing."

He tilted his tail gaily and flew around the house to the mulberry tree that grew in the front yard.

"Wake up! Wake up! Wake up!" sang Billy.

"Morning's fine! Morning's fine! Morning's fine! Don't anybody want to sing with me? Singing's very nice work this fine day!"

But evidently there was nobody who wished to sing just then, for Billy's song was the only one that could be heard.

"Where is everybody?" wondered Billy, and he looked carefully around the yard.

He saw no creature, not a friend or foe, but he did see something that made him look again, and look closely. He saw funny little ridges and bumps all over the newly-raked and seeded front lawn. Curious little hills and ridges, that turned this way and that, and that wiggled and twisted all over the yard.

Billy looked hard. Then he turned away, straightened his longest tail feathers and stretched his neck. Then he looked back to see if the ridges had disappeared.

No, there they were—just as crooked, just as wiggly, as before.

"Now isn't that the strangest thing I ever saw?" he asked himself thoughtfully. "I wonder what those little hills are and how they came to be there? I am sure they were not there yesterday. Yesterday? Let me see—I wasn't around here much yesterday, because the gardener's boy was spending the lettuce patch and I had such good eating there. But I am sure they were not here the day before that, because I sang in the front yard a long time."

Billy studied the little hills and ridges from the mulberry tree, then, as he saw or heard no one, he flew down to the grass to investigate closer.

And just as he touched the ground, a funny little pile of earth began to grow right in front of him. Doesn't that seem queer? He couldn't see a soul—not a creature was in sight. And yet, at the end of the nearest ridge, a little pile of freshly dug earth grew and grew and grew.

"It looks just as though somebody was pushing it up from under the grass," thought Billy wonderingly. "But that can't be, because nobody is there!"

"This is too much like a mystery for me," decided Billy when he had watched the still growing earth pile for several minutes. "I'm going to the back yard where my friends are and where such things don't happen." And back he flew, leaving the mystery unsolved.

New York, May 24—Jimmy Lynch, the oldest office boy in captivity, is chuck full of woe. He fairly aches it. Jimmy acts as a salt water Gargamel for the ship news reporters. He owns a $1 watch, which he bought six years ago. Recently it refused to tick and Jimmy took it to a jeweler.

The jeweler made a post-mortem examination and when Jimmy called for the verdict next day his watch was handed him with a piece of crepe tied around its stem.

"No hope," was the mournful verdict of the jeweler. "Might as well consign it to the well known Dary Jones's locker."

"What's the matter?" asked Jim, alarmed.

"Found a cockroach inside."

"That's what plugged up the works, eh?"

"No," replied the jeweler. "The cockroach had been keeping the thing going, but he died at his post."

A lady from the West, who isn't ashamed to ask questions, dined at the Astor with S. Jay Kaufman, the boulevardier, the other night. She asked him how the hotel got the ice inside the water bottles.

He explained in three methods. He said first that a small piece of ice from a five-cent restaurant nearby was pushed through the neck of the bottle and the bottle was then brought into the Astor. When the ice realized where it was, it swelled up with pride.

The second reason given was that a young man from Iceland gave the water a cold look through the neck of the bottle each day until it froze. The third was that the hotel sends several million bottles to the river, when the weather is below zero and when the water freezes inside the bottles are placed in cold storage until wanted.

Loney Haskell was in the Atlanta prison (as a guest) recently and he discovered that the new arrivals

He suggested that the next batch of arrivals should tell the warden of the prison that they were traveling salesmen.

Even the doctors are going in for line-ups. A New York physician has dashed off this one:

When Miss Edith Kleeth came to New York she had no idea of matrimony. She just fell into it—literally speaking. She was galloping in Central Park when her mount shied and threw her to the bridge path. Capt. Stanton Leroy was riding behind a short distance and jumped off in time to pick the young lady up.

She discovered that they were both stopping at the Majestic and the romance was soon in full bloom. Capt. Leroy returned to England to do some fighting and if he comes out unscathed they will be married in California next October.

Central Park is responsible for many romances. It's always leaping into the front page and there seems to be something about the place that has a great attraction for love-making couples.

The kids will be a-learin' of the school room pretty soon, And spill outdoors and go laughin' off across the field o' June; And the blooms'll bend to meet them, and the breeze will kiss their hair, And the streams'll sing awelcome, and the bird'll wait them there. And the trees'll bend their branches for them to catch hold and climb; I do wish that I was younger, when it gets vacation time.

Not that I want a vacation, not that I am worked too hard With my duties in the city, and my fussin' round the yard. It's just that I want the feelin' that they have when school is done, That the little sprouts o' springtime must feel when they reach the sun.

I just want to feel like they do when they see the open door, And they know that school is ended and that they are free once more.

Just the feelin', just the youngness goin' surrin' through my veins, Till I want to kick my heels up and go down the country lanes, Or go off across the prairie, vagrant as the wind that blows, Pausin' by the wayside spring, or bendin' down to smell a rose; Plungin' in to swim the rivers that go windin' to the sea.

Just to take a short vacation from my years, and to be free!

COUNCILMEN IN FAVOR OF HIGH LICENSE FOR THE STREET FAIRS

That members of the city council are in favor of the passage of an ordinance providing for a high license for street fairs that fill engagements here and strict regulation, is forcibly shown in the interviews they gave The Times Tuesday evening on the street fair controversy.

Every member approached is in favor of an adequate license and strict regulation. Each member willingly expressed his attitude in the matter excepting Councilman Sherrard M. Johnson, who is in Youngstown on business.

The interviews follow:
PRESIDENT JOHN W. FLOOD
"I sincerely hope that the ordinance committee of the city council draft an ordinance covering the street fair situation that will make it almost profitable for street fairs to visit the city. I am positively opposed to street fairs as I cannot see where they do the city any good whatever."

P. E. ROUSE
"I have felt all along that street fairs should pay a license within reason and that they should be strictly regulated. I can see no reason why street fairs should come into the city without paying a license."

G. W. VANDERVOORT
"I am in favor of licensing street fairs so high that only the absolutely first class organizations of this character could pay the license. Street fairs have helped any city and the license covering the local situation should be very stiff."

EMORY P. RICKEY
"I am in favor of making the street fair license so high that they will all give the city a wide berth. I have yet to find any street fair that adds to the prosperity of a city. I certainly favor a high license and strict regulation."

HAROLD RICE
"I am chairman of the ordinance committee of council and I believe the only way the street fair problem can be handled satisfactorily is for council to provide for a very high license and strict regulation. If they come in under these conditions all well and good. The city is entitled to a stiff license fee from street fairs."

WILLIAM CRAMER
"I would rather not be quoted on the street fair controversy until council takes up this matter officially." Mr. Cramer stated last night when asked about his attitude in this matter. "I will say this much, however, I am in favor of an adequate license."

C. W. WILSON
"I have never yet seen a street fair that adds to the moral tone of any city. I have all along favored a high license and strict regulation. The sooner council takes this action the better off the city will be."

Boys In Blue Are Honored At Annual G. A. R. Celebration

The second annual "G. A. R. Day" celebration held under the auspices of the Vienna Camp No. 20 at the Portsmouth High School auditorium Tuesday evening was a decided success, although the entertainment in honor of the veterans was delayed almost an hour by the heavy rains of the early part of the night. The old soldiers, thirty-nine in number, occupied seats of honor in the front row.

Shortly after seven-thirty o'clock the uniformed rank of the Portsmouth Council No. 38 Junior Order United American Mechanics and the Junior Order band and the United American band of the River City Camp No. 29 Woodmen of the World and the color guard of Vienna Camp No. 26, S. O. V., assembled at the corner of Fifth and Court streets.

The parade left about eight o'clock with the color guard at the front and closely followed by the band, the uniformed ranks and the automobiles carrying the members of Bailey Post No. 164, G. A. R., and the Ladies' Relief Corps.

The color guard marched to the second tier of steps in front of the High school building and formed lines on each side of the broad walks. The uniformed ranks formed a similar line on the approach. Then the ladies of the Relief Corps marched into the building. Following came the veterans. Halting in the corridor of the building, the veterans formed a double line and allowed the uniformed ranks to file past them. Then with music from the Jr. O. U. A. M. band, the "Boys of the Civil War" justly marched down the aisles and took their appointed seats amid applause.

There was a fair-sized audience, despite the delay. And the soldiers were given a royal welcome.

The front of the stage was simply decorated. There were potted palms, a spray of white lilies, a table draped with an American flag and flanked with pictures of George Washington and Abraham Lincoln. At one side was a large picture of a "Soldier's Farewell."

Capt. W. H. Williams took charge and nominated Dr. P. J. Kline to serve as chairman. The nomination was unanimously accepted and Dr. Kline, owing to the delay, dispensed with the formal opening address and bade goodnight.

C. M. Howland led the audience in the song, "The Battle Hymn of the Republic." George Carroll, chaplain of Vienna Camp, chanted the prayer.

Then came a selection by the male quartette, followed by a stirring and inspiring reading by Mrs. Lena Kline Reed, entitled: "The Grand Army of the Republic." The clash and eddies in the crash of battle, all for the glory of the great United States, formed the platform of those attending.

Characterizing them, Theo. R. Funk as a "merry lad with an inclination for law when he came to this town." Dr. Kline introduced the speaker.

"I remember of speaking at a gathering of the G. A. R. at Lanesville several years ago when the late Dr. Warwick was chairman," said Mr. Funk, "and I told them that I was born too late for the great civil war, as I was too young to go when the war broke out. And when the Spanish war broke out I was too big or a little too old."

"This school building is a fine piece of architecture, and the building will remain long after even the youngest here tonight has passed away; a living monument to the intelligence and progressiveness of the citizens of Portsmouth. But if I had been the architect and in building these massive walls, I would have erected a vast dome, covered with bronze and gold and reaching far into the heavens, and on the top of this dome I would have placed the cross of Christ in memory of Him who came on earth, and beneath on the sides, I would have lashed the colors of the flag of the civil war. And above the walls I would have chiseled the words of the 'Star Spangled Banner' in Triumphant Shells Wave."

"The American public school, as regulated today, is the greatest in the world, because it's doors are constantly open to everyone, high or low. It is a place where a child learns patriotism and a place where all men meet on a common ground." "Anyone who passes through the Portsmouth High school with credit and with a view of the future, goes out into this world with a practical education. We should feel grateful and proud of the Portsmouth schools, which have been placed in the front ranks of the educational world by the untiring energy and fidelity to duty of Superintendent Frank Appel. The Portsmouth schools are the best in the State of Ohio."

"The republic will endure just so long as the love of liberty and love of country survives in the hearts of the people. With this love, nothing can destroy this country. War is just a necessity to the establishment of peace itself and the advancement of civilization."

"The real cause of the war involved the question of continuing and extending human slavery. That question long before the war received the serious attention of the statesmen of that period. Notwithstanding all of these things, every means was employed to stave it off. They heard the rumble of battle long before the storm culminated and broke with unabated fury over the North and South."

"Among all of the states in those days of trouble, when their fate trembled in the balance, none answered the shrill call of the bugle with more fidelity to the cause than our own beloved Ohioans. Our sons day after day left their homes and marched over the rivers and mountains to the battlefields. And in the smoke of the field, where death struck its heaviest blows and men fell like the leaves of autumn and the cry of help was the shrillest, the Banner of Ohio valiantly waved over the depleted ranks of her brave sons."

The speaker closed his remarks with a description of the battlefields of Chattanooga, which he visited shortly after the civil war. A motion was entertained by Dr. Kline to thank the members of the Sons of Veterans and the other patriotic organizations which so significantly honored them with the entertainment, and to the citizens who furnished the automobiles. This motion was unanimously adopted.

Then one of the most touching incidents of the evening occurred. Dr. Kline called for the flag, and after it had been placed on the stage in front of the audience, he pointed to its sick folds of red and white stripes and said: "Children, this is a great flag. It is your flag and my flag. We are growing old, children, and we are now unable to defend it. I know that in your hearts there is a love for the flag."

You may go to Columbus, where the battle-flags used in the Civil and Mexican wars are stored. There are 461 old battle flags there, enclosed in glass cases. You may see the flag under which many of your grandfathers' friends fell. There is nothing that can purchase the American flag, there is no value too high. Its colors have been watched by the dying in the heat of battle; men have sacrificed their all for it, and today, as it stands, there is no price that can purchase it. Now, children, we are becoming feeble. It will be your business to preserve its colors and care for it," said the speaker, pointing to the field of blue, dotted with white stars.

"This great flag is steeped in the blood of thousands, washed in the tears of the widows and orphans, and dried upon the smiles of victorious children. This is your flag and my flag. Preserve it."

Then the audience sang three verses of "America," and Rev. A. L. Marting pronounced the benediction. Those dancing automobiles drove: Leo Pabst, Dr. O. B. Robt, Glenn Dealey, S. D. Eckhart, Lou Shellen, Alex Glockner, W. W. Bauer, Lou Spencer, Harry E. Taylor, Frank L. Marting, Dallas Lemon, Dr. O. D. Donahson.

Dorothy Green in "A Parisian Romance" at the Columbia Today

This is one of the strongest of the many strong picture productions from the celebrated William Fox studios, reproducing the greatest stage success of the late Richard Mansfield.

A cast of exceptional merit is seen in the William Fox production of the Richard Mansfield version of "A Parisian Romance," starring H. C. Cooper, Cliffe and Dorothy Green. Mr. Cliffe is the well known English actor and Miss Green is one of the greatest proto play favorites.

Other well known players include Margaret Skirvin, as Therese; Angeline Spier, as Marcelle; Isabel O'Madigan, as Mme. de Targy; Clarence Heritage, as Monsieur Beauchamp; Harold Mortelle, as Monsieur de Targy; Dion Titheradge, as Henri de Targy; Adolph Menjou, as Julian; Mrs. Cecil Balogh, as Mme. de Lavelle; Emile J. de Varney, as the valet.

At The Arcana

"The Photo Badger Game," is the title of No. 19 of the "Graft" series. Richard Stanton as Mayor Harding, takes a vacation at the beach where he discovers the other principals of the series. He collides with Tracy, head of the battleship trust, and his ancient enemy, Stone. The fire scene at the close with the rescue of Dorothy, is well staged. More comedy than usual is displayed in these two reels. "Scorched Wings" is a three part Imp drama, featuring Betty Gray, as an impressionable girl just learning her power over the masculine sex. She comes near to taking the fatal step before common sense awakens her to the meaning of true love. "He Almost Eloped," is a rip-roaring Nestor comedy.

Green, Brown county, suffered a slight paralytic stroke Friday night. His left side and throat were affected. He is 65 years old, which will be against him in regaining his health.

Alfred Schneider, a son of Green Jos. Schneider, of Market street, went to Columbus Tuesday to enter Grant hospital for the removal of his tonsils. He was accompanied by Dr. L. D. Allard.

EARLYTOWN "GUN MAN" IS HELD TO GRAND JURY

Arthur Fillmore, the Earlytown youth, who still tried to escape after he had been "winged" by a pistol bullet fired by Patrolman William Osborn, was held to the grand jury by Mayor Kaps, Tuesday evening, on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon. His bond was fixed at $500. Three other affidavits against the youth will also be sent before the grand jury.

Fillmore pleaded not guilty to the charge which fixed May 18 as the date of his offense. It was on that day that foreigners surprised him in Nick Argros' home on Plum street, he holding them at bay at the point of a revolver, until he could leap through a window. The defendant's counsel,

Attorney B. F. Kimble, raised the point that he did not hide his weapon, instead holding it in plain view of the foreigners, but one witness, Victor Turel, testified to seeing Fillmore pocket the weapon after he had jumped through the window. Argros and Gus Dallas were also witnesses against Fillmore. Mrs. Anne Dye, of 2321 Eighth street, testified to seeing Fillmore throw a gun away when officers took after him Tuesday morning. A separate charge of carrying a concealed weapon was filed against him for May 23. Fillmore denied that the gun found was his property.

The other two charges against Fillmore are for entering the Argros home in the day season with intent to rob it and of entering the home of Lucia Fulciniti and Bruno Moroni at 2302 Ninth street, on February 8, and stealing a 32 calibre revolver, two razors, a coat, shirt, one pair of pants, gloves, two pocketbooks, twelve lead pencils and a knife all of the total value of $19.75.

The accused's father, Taylor Fillmore, during his first visit to the police headquarters Tuesday said his son had been reading yellow back dime novels with such regularity that he had come to imagine himself as one of the kind of heroes portrayed in that sort of literature. On a later visit in the afternoon Fillmore advised his son to plead not guilty to whatever charge was preferred against him.

OBITUARY

Beverly Victor Storer
Beverly Victor Storer, aged 61 years, an N. & W. machinist helper, and one of New Boston's best known citizens, died at his home in that village Wednesday morning at 2:30 o'clock.

Mr. Storer never fully recovered from the effects of serious injuries sustained October 11, 1915, when while on his way to work at the Terminals he was struck by a B. & O. local freight train. After spending a couple of months in Hempstead hospital he was removed back home and for a time seemed on a fair way to complete recovery but developed a cancerous growth on his back.

Mr. Storer was born in Pond Run, Scioto county, the son of David Storer, a pioneer citizen of Pond Run, who died eight years ago, and had for a number of years lived in Portsmouth and was employed as a motorman on the street railway. He had lived in New Boston for the past twelve years during which time he has been in the service of the N. & W.

Mr. Storer was married 35 years ago to Maria Williams, who survives him with one son, Van E. Storer, of Third and Sinton streets, one daughter Mrs. Albina C. Young, wife of Ed Young, of Kinney Lane. Mrs. Effie Hood, of Sciotoville, was a stepdaughter. Mr. Storer also leaves one brother, Elza Storer, of Milford, Clermont county, Ohio, and two sisters, Mrs. Almada George, wife of Fire Chief William George of Leanton, and Mrs. Geneva Kennedy of Eleventh street, widow of the late Oliver O. Kennedy. In his earlier days he was an attendant of the Methodist Episcopal church at Pond Run. The funeral will take place some time Friday with interment in the Storer cemetery at Pond Run.

The body will be at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Young, 1403 Kinney Lane, until Friday.

Funeral Wednesday

The body of the late William Nagel, who died recently in California, arrived here Tuesday night and was accompanied by Mrs. Nagel and son Arthur. The funeral services will be conducted this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the home of Mrs. Gus Kehler, a sister of the deceased, who resides at 916 Waller street. The last rites of Mr. Nagel, who for many years was an honored resident of Portsmouth, will be conducted by Rev. George P. Horst.

400 WERE SERVED

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Wheelersburg Methodist church notified R. E. Thomas, secretary of the Business Men's Association, Tuesday, that they had served approximately 400 people at the formal opening of the Ohio Valley traction line.

Girls Arrested On Parents Complaint

Florence Tolliver and Bertha Murta, two young girls of Front street, were arrested Wednesday morning by Officer Platt and lodged in the county jail at the request of the juvenile court authorities. The girls, who are under suspended sentences to the Delaware School for Girls, left their homes Tuesday afternoon and failed to return. Their parents complained to the juvenile court authorities and they were arrested.

The Tolliver girl had a $5 bill when she left home. Both girls were placed under suspended sentence in a similar charge recently. They will be given a hearing Saturday afternoon, when Judge Thomas C. Bower returns from his vacation.

State Liquor Inspectors Get Busy, Bootleggers Are Caught

The recent activities of two inspectors of the Ohio State Liquor License Commission were responsible for quite a gathering in Mayor H. H. Kaps' court Tuesday evening.

The officers of the Triangle Club, a colored social organization, operating in the rooms over Johnson & Johnson's saloon at No. 1016 Waller street, appeared before the mayor on orders of the two sleuths, John M. Powell and Everett Spurlock.

The club officers were enlightened as to how they had been guilty of technically violating the liquor laws in that they dispensed refreshments on Sunday through a ticket system instead of members having their own individual tickets and each to personally look after the purchase of being and keeping of his own supply of "wet goods."

They were dismissed with the warning to strictly keep within the law in the future or other measures would be adopted against them.

Spurlock is a colored man and an officer of recognized ability and through his clever operations in the North End, Sunday, May 14 caused the arrest Tuesday of John "Chicken" Nichols, Chas. "Peggy" Foster, Chas. "Jake" Haley and Walter Barber, negroes.

Spurlock disguised himself as a ragged negro bum and loitered about Paradise alley and other favorite haunts of the usual Saturday day "parched throat" class. He met "Chicken" Nichols and whispered to him how sadly in need he was of a "bracer." The ever obliging "Chicken" steered him to Charles "Kitty" Collins, but that young man, according to Spurlock's testimony in court, told him that he did not happen to have any "booze" just then. Nichols next took his new acquaintance to his home in Paradise alley. A woman was standing in the doorway. Nichols, him of the same kind secured left Spurlock talking to her while he himself repaired upstairs. A moment later he came back downstairs with a pint of "Cropper's Best." Spurlock gave him the required price, 75 cents, and Nichols laid it at the foot of the stairway and shouted "Here's your money." "All right, 171," Barber, Nichols and Haley all entered pleas of not guilty.

Spurlock testified that he did not see this man but that Nichols told him later that it was Jake Haley.

Spurlock later met "Peggy" Foster and together they visited Walter Barber's home on Twelfth street, just below the N. & W. ent. Barber, according to Spurlock, in the proceedings.

had heard him remark to Foster that he would like to have some whiskey and told him that he would be out at his home in a little while. They got a pint from the bar.

Nichols said that the negroes would lay in their supply on Saturday nights and that they "double" on their money, securing just twice as much as they paid for it.

Barber, Nichols and Haley all entered pleas of not guilty. Spurlock testified that he did not see this man but that Nichols told him later that it was Jake Haley.
